Constitution

(Amended 10-20-87)

PREAMBLE

We, the missionary Baptist churches of Jesus Christ, composing the South Fork Baptist Association of North Carolina, convinced of the necessity of an association of churches in order to promote fellowship, missions education, Christian service, the preaching of the gospel, and to cooperate with the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and the Southern Baptist Convention in their work, do hereby agree and subscribe to the following articles.

Article I – NAME

The name of the body shall be the South Fork Baptist Association of North Carolina, hereinafter referred to as the Association.

Article II – MEMBERSHIP

The membership of the Association shall be composed of the duly elected messengers from the cooperating Baptist churches in the Association, three for the first one hundred members or fraction thereof, and one for each additional one hundred members or fraction thereof, provided that no church shall have more than ten messengers in addition to the pastor. All pastors of churches in the Association and the director of missions shall be recognized as messengers.

Article III – AUTHORITY

The Association claims to be independent and sovereign in its own sphere, but shall never attempt to exercise any authority over the internal affairs of the churches.

Article IV – ARTICLES OF FAITH

The Articles of Faith of the Association, which shall be the basis of fellowship and cooperation, are those adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention in Memphis, Tennessee on May 14, 1925 and amended in Kansas City, Missouri, May 9, 1963.

Article V – MEETINGS

The Association shall meet annually on Monday and Tuesday after the third Sunday in October. The moderator, at the request of the Executive Committee, shall call special meetings of the Association, provided two weeks notice is given to the member churches.

Article VI – OFFICERS

The officers of the Association shall be moderator, vice moderator, clerk, treasurer, parliamentarian, historian, and three trustees. They shall be elected by the Association in its annual meeting and shall assume their duties at the close of the annual meeting. Vacancies occurring between annual meetings shall be filled by the Executive Committee, except the office of moderator, in which the vice moderator shall automatically become moderator.

Article VII – ORGANIZATIONS

The Association shall encourage and promote such associational organizations as Sunday School, Church Training, Woman's Missionary Union, Brotherhood, Media, Missions Development Council, Music, Evangelism Council, Stewardship Council, Seminary Extension, Vacation Bible School, Youth and such other organizations which are in keeping with the purpose of the Association with their full staffs and programs necessary for the promotion of the work. The officers of these organizations shall be elected by the Association in its annual meeting and shall assume their duties at the close of the annual meeting.

They shall be enlisted for a two year commitment, renewed annually, with a maximum tenure of five years. Vacancies occurring between annual meetings shall be filled by the Executive Committee.

Article VIII – ASSOCIATIONAL BOARD

The Association shall have an Associational Board composed of the officers of the Association, the director of missions, the associational Sunday School director, the associational Church Training director, the associational Woman's Missionary Union director, the associational Brotherhood director, the associational Media director, the associational Missions Development director, the associational Music director, the associational Evangelism director, the associational Stewardship director, the associational Seminary Extension director, the associational Vacation Bible School director, the associational Youth coordinator, the chairman of associational standing committees, the pastors of the member churches, and two members from each member church to be elected by the church. The two members from each church shall be duly certified in the annual letter.

Article IX – ASSOCIATIONAL COUNCIL

The Association shall have an Associational Council composed of the director of missions as chairman, the moderator, the associational Sunday School director, the associational Church Training director, the associational Woman's Missionary Union director, the associational Brotherhood director, the associational Media director, the associational Missions Development director, the associational Music director, the associational Evangelism director, the associational Stewardship director, the associational Seminary Extension director, the associational Vacation Bible School director, the associational Youth coordinator, the chairman of the Executive Committee.

Article X – COMMITTEES

The moderator shall appoint at the annual meeting of the Association two replacements for those whose terms expire or for any vacancy that may exist on the Committee on Committees. This committee shall consist of six members, of whom at least two shall be other than pastors.

Members of all committees shall be elected to serve on a rotating basis of not more than three years.

The Association shall have the following standing committees, along with other committees authorized by the Association or the Associational Board.

1. The Executive Committee shall be composed of the moderator, the vice moderator, the chairman of the Finance Committee, the Missions Development director, and six other members, of whom at least two shall be other than pastors.

2. The Finance Committee shall be composed of the treasurer, the Stewardship director, and six other members, of whom at least two shall be other than pastors.

3. The Nominating Committee shall be composed of six members, of whom at least two shall be other than pastors.

4. The Program Committee shall be composed of six members, of whom at least two shall be other than pastors.

5. The Ordination Committee shall be composed of six pastors.

6. The Resolutions Committee shall be composed of three members, of whom at least one shall be other than pastors.

7. The Christian Life and Public Affairs Committee shall be composed of three members, of whom at least one shall be other than a pastor.

8. The Student Assistance Committee shall be composed of six members.

9. The Properties Committee shall be composed of three members, of whom at least one shall be a pastor.

Article XI – NEW CHURCHES

The Association may receive other churches into its fellowship upon receipt of letters of dismission from other like associations. It may also receive newly constituted churches whose Articles of Faith harmonize with the generally accepted Articles of Faith among Southern Baptists. Any newly organized church applying for membership in the Association shall be received under the watchcare of the Association for a period of time sufficient to prove, through practice and attitude, its place as a cooperating Baptist church. A church, upon organization, may apply for membership through the Executive Committee of the Association, upon recommendation of the Missions Development Council. The Missions Development Council, based upon new work guidelines, may recommend at the next annual meeting that the church be received into full fellowship of the Association. During this period of watchcare such churches shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of the Association except that their members shall not hold office or vote.

Article XII – DISCIPLINE

Any church failing to report the annual letter to the Association, or failing to be represented at the annual meeting, or failing to contribute worthily to associational and denominational missions, for two consecutive years, shall be notified by the Executive Committee that if their failure is not remedied by the next annual meeting, recommendation shall be made to remove said church from the fellowship of the Association.

Article XIII – CONSTITUTIONAL CHANGES

This constitution may be amended at any annual meeting of the Association by a two-thirds majority of the messengers present and voting on the second day, at a time provided by the Program Committee, provided the proposed amendment has been presented to the Executive Committee in writing at least thirty days prior to the annual meeting, and provided the proposed amendment is read to the Association on the first day of the annual meeting.

Article XIV – QUORUM

Messengers to the annual meeting from thirty-three and one-third percent of the churches enrolled as members of the Association shall constitute a quorum.

Bylaws

(Amended 10-20-87)

Article I – Parliamentary Rules

The parliamentary authority of the Association shall be Robert's Rules of Order (latest revised edition).

Article II – Associational Year

The associational year shall begin October 1 and close September 30. The Association shall operate on a budget approved at the annual meeting to begin the following January 1 and conclude December 31.

Article III – Meetings

The annual meeting of the Association shall be held at such places as may be decided by the Association, upon recommendation of the Program Committee, in annual meeting. Change of places that may become necessary shall be decided by the Executive Committee. Each session of the Association shall be opened and closed with prayer.

Article IV – Election of Officers

Nominations for moderator and vice moderator shall be made from the floor. The Nominating Committee will present names for all other officers.

Article V – Duties of Officers

1. The moderator shall preside over the meetings of the Association according to the Constitution and Bylaws, and appoint two replacements for those whose terms expire or for any vacancy that may exist on the Committee on Committees. He shall be chairman of the Associational Board and shall be a member of all committees. He shall be ineligible to succeed himself after the second successive term.

2. The vice moderator shall preside in the absence, or, at the pleasure of the moderator, and shall be vice chairman of the Associational Board. The vice moderator is a member of the Executive Committee.

3. The clerk shall send annual report forms to the member churches at least thirty days prior to the annual meeting; keep an accurate record of the proceedings of the Association; supervise the printing and the distributing of the minutes to the member churches, subject to the approval of the Executive Committee; keep on file copies of the minutes, records and other documents of the Association; and serve as secretary of the Associational Board. For these services the clerk shall receive an honorarium to be decided by the Association and paid quarterly.

4. The treasurer shall receive and bank all funds of the Association in the name of the Association, disburse the same upon instructions from the Association, its Associational Board or as designated in the budget; render an accurate report of receipts and disbursements at the annual meeting; give a report at each quarterly Associational Board meeting; keep books available and up to date for examination. For mutual protection, the treasurer shall be bonded in such an amount as the Executive Committee shall direct. For these services the treasurer shall receive an honorarium to be decided by the Association and paid quarterly. The treasurer is a member of the Finance Committee.

5. The parliamentarian shall advise and assist the moderator and the Association with respect to all matters, involving proper parliamentary procedure, includes annual meetings, board meetings, special meetings, etc.

6. The historian shall collect and preserve historical data on the Association and its churches.

7. The three trustees shall be the legal representatives of the Association in all matters concerning the acquiring or disposing of real property, and shall execute in the name of the Association all legal instruments as directed by the Association or the Associational Board. The chairman of the trustees shall be authorized to sign checks in the absence of the associational treasurer.

Article VI – Duties of Organizational Leaders

Organizational directors shall serve on the Associational Council.

1. The Sunday School director shall promote and supervise the Sunday School program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions.

2. The Church Training director shall promote and supervise the Church Training program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions.

3. The Woman's Missionary Union director shall promote and supervise the Woman's Missionary Union program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions and in keeping with the Constitution and Bylaws of Woman's Missionary Union of South Fork Baptist Association.

4. The Brotherhood director shall promote and supervise the Brotherhood program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions.

5. The Music director shall promote and supervise the Music program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions.

6. The Vacation Bible School director shall promote and supervise the Vacation Bible School program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions.

7. The Missions Development Council shall promote and supervise the mission program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions. The council shall be headed by a Missions Development director, who, with the director of missions, will determine the need for other council members based on the areas of missions where emphasis is to be placed.

8. The Media director shall direct and supervise the Media Program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions.

9. The Evangelism Council shall promote and supervise the Evangelism program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions.

10. The Stewardship Council shall promote and supervise the Stewardship program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions. The director is a member of the Finance Committee.

11. The Seminary Extension director shall promote and supervise the Seminary Extension program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions.

12. The Youth coordinator shall promote and supervise the Youth program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions.

Article VII – The Associational Board

The Associational Board shall hold four quarterly meetings and others as necessary, and present a written report to the Association at its annual meeting. It shall be the duty of the Associational Board to act for the Association in the interim between annual meetings. It shall carry out the policies and will of the Association.

Article VIII – The Associational Council

The Associational Council shall coordinate the activities of the associational organizations and plan and promote an associational calendar of activities. It shall meet at least once per quarter.

Article IX – Duties of Committees

1. The Committee on Committees shall nominate the members of the standing committees, present them for election by the Association, fill any committee vacancies that may occur between annual meetings, report these to the Associational Board, and appoint special committees that may be authorized by the Association or its Associational Board.

2. The Executive Committee shall administer all matters committed to it by the Association or its Associational Board and decide on routine and emergency matters between sessions of the Associational Board. It shall initiate and recommend matters concerning business management and approve the employment of all personnel, except the director of missions. Upon recommendation of the Missions Development Council, it shall review applications for membership in the Association from newly constituted churches. It shall provide annually for an audit of the treasurer's records and report the condition of the financial records to the Association. It shall give full guidance and direction to the director of missions in formulating plans and promoting the work of the Association in general. It shall meet monthly but a quorum of five shall be necessary to transact business. It shall report quarterly to the Associational Board.

3. The Finance Committee shall consult with the appropriate leadership of the associational organizations, committees, and officers, then plan and present to the Associational Board in its last meeting prior to the annual meeting of the Association an annual budget to be approved by the board and present it to the Association at the annual meeting for final approval. This committee shall have the general oversight and administration of the financial affairs of the Association, and make a quarterly report to the Associational Board. The chairman is a member of the Executive Committee.

4. The Nominating Committee shall nominate at the annual meeting of the Association the officers of the Association (with the exception of the moderator and vice moderator), organizational officers according to Articles VI and VII of the Constitution, and associational representatives for the various institutions and agencies of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.

5. The Program Committee shall prepare a printed program for the annual meeting of the Association which shall be sent to all persons on the program and to all pastors at least thirty days before the annual meeting. It shall direct the enrollment of the messengers at the annual meeting. It shall recommend the place or places for the next annual meeting and the preacher and alternates for the annual sermon.

6. The Ordination Committee shall, upon request by a member church, assist with the examination and ordination of a candidate for the gospel ministry.

7. The Resolutions Committee shall present to the Association any resolutions it may deem wise. All resolutions presented to the Association shall be referred to the Resolutions Committee, except that by a two-thirds vote of the messengers present on the first day of the annual meeting, the rules may be suspended and a resolution may be taken up for immediate consideration.

8. The Christian Life and Public Affairs Committee shall recommend ways in which the Association can work for the promotion of civic righteousness and social uplift.

9. The Student Assistance Committee shall receive requests and make decisions concerning disbursements of available funds for student assistance.

10. The Properties Committee is responsible for supervising the maintenance of the building and grounds of the Association as budgeted. Additional recommendations shall be referred to the Associational Board.

11. Members of all committees shall be elected to serve on a rotating basis of not more than three years.

Article X – Employment Procedures

A director of missions shall be recommended by the Executive Committee. This person shall be presented to and elected by the Association or the Associational Board which shall determine the salary/benefits. The director of missions shall work under the guidance of the Executive Committee and serve as a member of all committees. All other employed personnel, as may be provided in the associational budget, shall be employed by the Executive Committee.

Article XI – Amendments

Amendments to the bylaws may be made at any annual meeting by a majority of the messengers present.

Dedication

The South Fork Baptist Association, meeting in the One Hundred Nineteenth Annual Session, voted on October 20, 1997, to dedicate the 1997 annual minutes to the following faithful ministers:

Rev. Marshall Haywood Black was born on December 30, 1925, in Lincoln County. His parents are Judson and Eliza White Black. Rev. Black pastored the following churches in Lincoln, Gaston, and Cleveland Counties: Oak Grove (Cherryville), Webb's Chapel, David Memorial, Howard's Creek, Coral Park, Zoar and Casar. In 1948, he married Charity Neal. They have 3 children, Aaron, Amos (deceased), and Lydia, 3 grandchildren, and one great grandchild. Rev. Black went to be with his Lord on September 3, 1997.

Beeler Jennings Morris, known to his friends as "B. J.", was born on June 28, 1922, to Jettie Ida Little Morris and Forrest Derr Morris in Stanley, North Carolina. He is a graduate of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and has pastored churches in Texas, Oklahoma, Florida, and North Carolina. B. J. was pastor of Boger City Baptist Church for 19 years. In retirement, he continued to serve as pastor at Crouse Baptist Church. Over the years, he filled many positions in the South Fork Baptist Association including that of moderator. B. J. served 8 years with the U. S. Army, with service during World War II. He married Ruth Coley and together, they shared 51 years as marriage partners. Ruth and B. J. have 2 children, Charles Curtis and Elizabeth and 3 grandchildren. B. J. went to be with his Lord on August 17, 1997.

Rev. Herbert Preston Miller was born on September 29, 1912; attended public schools in Townsville, North Carolina, High Point, North Carolina, and Alma, Georgia, was graduated from Mars Hills Junior College in 1936; did public work until 1938 when he was called into the minsitry; attended High Point College; attended New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary and served as student pastor of a mission church in Patterson, Louisiana. While at seminary in New Orleans, he met and married a recent graduate of the seminary, Annie Laurie McLellan, who was from Durant, Mississippi. Together they served a field of churches in the Chowan Association in North Carolina, from 1941-44. Rev. Miller served as student pastor in the Tar River Association and graduated Magna Cum Laude from Wake Forest University and attended the Divinity School of Duke University. He served as pastor at Ephesus Baptist Church; he served as pastor of a field of churches in the Virginia Portsmouth Association 1948-51. All three churches erected Sunday School buildings, remodeled their sanctuaries, and installed heating plants. Spiritual, numerical and financial gains were realized by three churches. He pastored Balfour Baptist Church in the Randolph Baptist Association in North Carolina from 1951-59. Balfour realized a gain in Sunday School attendance and built a new sanctuary. Rev. Miller pastored Boger City Baptist Church in Lincolnton from 1959-71. During that time, the sanctuary was remodeled and pastorium was built. Rev. and Mrs. Miller had 2 daughters, Ivy and Margie.

Articles of Incorporation
of
South Fork Baptist Association

A NON-PROFIT CORPORATION

I, the undersigned natural person of the age of eighteen or more, acting as incorporator for the purpose of creating a nonprofit corporation under the laws of the State of North Carolina, as contained in Chapter 55A of the General Statutes of North Carolina, entitled "Nonprofit Corporation Act," and the several amendments thereto, do hereby set forth:

ARTICLE I - NAME

The name of the corporation is South Fork Baptist Association, and is located in Lincolnton, Lincoln County, North Carolina.

ARTICLE II - DURATION

The period of duration of the corporation shall be perpetual.

ARTICLE III - CHARACTER

The South Fork Baptist Association is, in spiritual character and legal identity, an association of churches through their messengers and other representatives. The Association is independent and sovereign in its own sphere, but shall never attempt to exercise any authority over the internal affairs of the churches.

ARTICLE IV - PURPOSES

A. The purposes of this Association shall be to provide a cooperative and orderly means through which our family of affiliated Baptist churches may:

1. provide servanthood focused missions and ministries;
2. encourage evangelism, stewardship, training and discipleship;
3. promote fellowship among ministers and churches as together we share the Gospel of Jesus Christ in word and deed; and
4. cooperate with the Baptist State Convention and the Southern Baptist Convention.

B. In furtherance of its purposes, and to the extent necessary to carry out such purposes, the corporation:

1. Shall have all the powers given to and possessed by a North Carolina Corporation organized under the North Carolina Nonprofit Corporation Act.
2. May engage in any lawful activity within the purposes for which the corporation may be organized which are incidental to and in furtherance of the exempt purposes of the corporation.

C. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, officers or other private persons, except to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes as set forth in the Articles.

D. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporations shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future U.S. Internal Revenue Law) or (b) by any corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future U.S. Internal Revenue Law).

ARTICLE V - GOVERNMENT

The government of this association shall be Baptistic in nature, and the final authority for the operation and management of the affairs of this corporation, spiritual and temporal, shall be vested in the member churches of the corporation, which authority shall be exercised in the manner set forth in the Bylaws. Members alone, acting in the manner set forth in the Bylaws, and through the messengers and representatives, shall have the authority to adopt and amend Bylaws, approve budgets, receive members and govern and conduct the affairs of this corporation, subject to these Articles. Elected messengers shall represent the member churches at all meetings and their votes shall be binding as the votes of the represented churches. Such messengers and other persons shall be allowed, and/or elected to attend the Association meetings in accordance with the Bylaws.

The officers of the Association shall be those elected officers whose qualifications, duties and terms are set forth in the Bylaws. Fulfilling the duties of the corporate Board of Directors shall be the Executive Committee within the Associational Board as set forth in the Bylaws, and their powers shall be subject to the limits set forth therein. The Moderator shall be chairman of the Board.

At all times when the membership is not in formal session, the Association shall be managed by the Associational Board, its Executive Committee, and Associational Council as set forth in the Bylaws.

ARTICLE VI - MEMBERS

The corporation shall have two classes of members as provided in the Bylaws and all member churches shall be accepted in the manner set forth in the Bylaws. All present member churches of the Association shall automatically become members of the corporation.

ARTICLE VII - INITIAL DIRECTORS

The number of initial directors shall be eight, and the initial directors shall be the same as the current Executive Committee of the South Fork Baptist Association, whose names and addresses are as follows:

Earl Pennell, 1923 Hidden Valley Ave, Lincolnton, N.C. 28092
Hartwell Condrey, 1256 Sigmon Rd., Lincolnton, N.C. 28092

Shirley Alexander, 1752 Arden Dr., Lincolnton, N.C. 28092
Raymond Hamrick, 5045 E. Maiden Rd., Maiden, N.C. 28650

ARTICLE VIII - DISSOLUTION

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the board of directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes of the corporation in such a manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for religious purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future U.S. Internal Revenue Law), as the board of directors shall determine. Priority shall be given to churches and ministries in affiliation with the Southern Baptist Convention or the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be dispersed by the Superior Court of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE IX - REGISTERED AGENT AND OFFICE,
PRINCIPAL PLACE OF OPERATIONS

The address of the initial registered office and principal office and place of operations of the corporation in North Carolina is 2261 Laboratory Road, P.O. Box 246, Lincoln County, Lincolnton, N.C. 28092, and the registered agent is Glain S. Pennell.

ARTICLE X - INCORPORATOR

The name and address of the incorporator is Lynn R. Buzzard, 30 Kivett Hall,(P.O. Box 891) Buies Creek, North Carolina 27506.

B. In furtherance of its purposes, and to the extent necessary to carry out such purposes, the corporation

BYLAWS

PREAMBLE

We, the Baptist churches of Jesus Christ, composing the South Fork Baptist Association of North Carolina, convinced of the necessity of an association of churches in order to promote fellowship, missions education, Christian service, the preaching of the gospel and to cooperate with the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and the Southern Baptist Convention in their work, do hereby agree and subscribe to the following articles.

ARTICLE I - NAME

The name of the body shall be the South Fork Baptist Association of North Carolina, hereinafter referred to as the Association.

ARTICLE II - AUTHORITY

The Association claims to be independent and sovereign in its own sphere, but shall never attempt to exercise any authority over the internal affairs of the churches.

ARTICLE III - ARTICLES OF FAITH

The Articles of Faith of the Association, which shall be the basis of fellowship and cooperation, are those adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention in Memphis, Tennessee, May 14, 1925 and amended in Kansas City, Missouri, May 9, 1963.

ARTICLE IV - GOVERNMENT

The government of this association shall be Baptistic in nature, and the final authority for the operation and management of the affairs of this corporation, spiritual and temporal, shall be ultimately vested in the member churches of the corporation, which authority shall be exercised in the manner set forth in the bylaws. Members alone, acting in the manner and through the messengers and representatives, as set forth in the bylaws, shall have the authority to adopt and amend bylaws, approve budgets, receive members and govern and conduct the affairs of this corporation, subject to the following paragraph. Elected "Messengers" shall represent the member churches at all meetings and their votes shall be binding as the votes of the represented church. Such "Messengers" and other persons shall be allowed, and/or elected to attend the Associational meetings in accordance with the bylaws.

ARTICLE V - MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Members. Eligible Voters. This Association shall be composed of affiliated churches. Those persons authorized to act while the Association is meeting in session shall consist of the following:

A All pastors of churches in the Association and the director of missions shall be recognized as messengers.

B. Three for the first one hundred members or fraction thereof, and one for each additional one hundred members or fraction thereof, provided that no church shall have more than ten messengers in addition to the pastor.

Section 2. Process for Receiving Church into Affiliation

The Association may receive other churches into its fellowship upon receipt of letters of dismissal from other like associations. It may also receive newly constituted churches whose Articles of Faith harmonize with the generally accepted Articles of Faith among Baptists. Any newly organized church applying for membership in the Association shall be received under the watchcare of the Association for a period of time to prove, through practice and attitude, its place as a cooperating Baptist Church.

A church, upon organization, may apply for membership through the Executive Committee of the Association, upon recommendation of the Missions Development Council. The Missions Development Council, based upon new work guidelines, may recommend at the next annual meeting that the church be received by majority vote into full fellowship of the Association. During this period of watchcare such churches shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of the Association except that their members and/or messengers shall not hold office or vote.

A church under watchcare shall submit to the Association noting the church membership and attendance, financial reports of receipts, disbursements and indebtedness, and ownership of real estate.

Section 4. Discipline and Removal from Membership

Any church failing to report the annual letter to the Association, or failing to be represented at the annual meeting or failing to contribute to associational and denominational missions, for two consecutive years, shall be notified by the Executive Committee that if their failure is not remedied by the next annual meeting, recommendation shall be made to the Association acting in annual session to remove said church from the fellowship of the Association.

By a two-thirds majority vote at an annual meeting or other properly called special meeting of the Association, any church may be removed from membership in the Association. Any motion to remove such status must, however, be made by the Executive Committee which prior to any vote shall advise the church subject to such action of the proposed motion and provide an opportunity for the church to address the Committee and the Association concerning the issue.

ARTICLE VI - MEETINGS OF THE ASSOCIATION IN SESSION

Section 1. Annual Meeting. The Association shall meet annually on Monday and Tuesday after the third Sunday in October, unless otherwise set by the Associational Board. The annual meeting of the Association shall be held at such places as may be decided by the Association, upon recommendation of the Program Committee, in annual meeting. Change of places that may become necessary shall be decided by the Executive Committee. Each session of the Association shall be opened and closed with prayer.

Section 2. Special Called Meetings. The moderator, at the request of the Executive Committee, or any twenty churches requested such in writing, shall call special meetings of the Association, provided two weeks written notice is given to the member churches. The call shall set forth the purpose of the meeting and only matters noted in the call may be the subject of action at the called meeting.

Section 3. Quorum. Messengers to the annual meeting from thirty-three and one-third percent of the member-churches of the Association shall constitute a quorum.

Section 4. The parliamentary guide of the Association shall be Robert's Rules of Order (latest revised edition), except that the moderator, absent objection or with the consent of the body, may modify such rules in the interests of open discussion and process.

Section 5. Except as otherwise provided herein, action by the Association in session shall be by majority vote of those present and voting. No voting by proxy or absentee ballot shall be permitted in any election or vote in any matter.

ARTICLE VII - OFFICERS

Section 1. Officers: The officers of the Association shall be moderator, vice moderator, clerk, treasurer, parliamentarian, and historian.

Section 2. Election: The officers shall be elected by the Association in its annual meeting and shall assume their duties at the close of the annual meeting. Nominations for moderator and vice moderator shall be made from the floor. The Nomination Committee will present names for all other officers.

Section 3. Vacancy: Vacancies occurring between annual meetings shall be filled by the Executive Committee, except the office of the Moderator, in which the vice moderator shall automatically become moderator.

Section 4. Moderator. The moderator shall preside over the meetings of the Association according to the Bylaws, and appoint two replacements for those whose terms expire or for any vacancy that may exist on the Committee on Committees. He shall be chairman of the Associational Board and shall be a member of all committees. He shall be ineligible to succeed himself after the second successive term.

Section 5. Vice Moderator. The vice moderator shall preside in the absence, or, at the pleasure of the moderator, and shall be vice chairman of the Associational Board. The vice moderator is a member of the Executive Committee.

Section 6. Clerk. The clerk shall send annual report forms to the member churches at least 30 days prior to the annual meeting; keep an accurate record of the proceedings of the Association; supervise the printing and distributing of the minutes to the member churches, subject to the approval of the Executive Committee; keep on file copies of the minutes, records and other documents of the Association; and serve as secretary of the Associational Board. For these services, the clerk shall receive an honorarium to be decided by the Association and paid quarterly.

Section 7. Treasurer. The treasurer shall receive and bank all funds of the Association in the name of the Association, disburse the same upon instructions from the Association, its Associational Board or as designated in the budget; render an accurate report of receipts and disbursements at the annual meeting; give a report at each quarterly Associational Board meeting; keep books available and up to date for examination. For mutual protection, the treasurer shall be bonded in such an amount as the Executive Committee shall direct. For these services, the treasurer shall receive an honorarium to be decided by the Association and paid quarterly. The treasurer is a member of the Finance Committee.

Section 8. Parliamentarian. The parliamentarian shall advise and assist the moderator and the Association with respect to all matters, involving proper parliamentary procedure, includes annual meeting, board meetings, special meetings, etc.

Section 9. Historian. The historian shall collect and preserve historical data on the Association and its churches.

ARTICLE VIII - ASSOCIATIONAL BOARD

Section 1. Composition: The Association shall have an Associational Board composed of the officers of the Association, the director of missions, the associational Sunday School director, the associational Discipleship Training director, the associational Women on Missions director, the associational Brotherhood director, the associational Media director, the associational Missions Development director, the associational Music director, the associational Evangelism director, the associational Stewardship director, the associational Seminary Extension director, the associational Vacation Bible School director, the associational Youth coordinator, the chairmen of associational standing committees, the pastors of the member churches, and two members from each member church to be elected by the church. The two members from each church shall be duly certified in the annual letter.

Section 2. Meetings. The Associational Board shall hold four quarterly meetings and others as necessary. Special meetings of the Associational Board may be called by the Executive Committee, provided written notice is given all members at least one week prior to the meeting, and the purpose is expressly set forth. Only matters noted in the notice may be acted on at such a called meeting.

Section 3. Duties. The Associational Board shall act for the Association in the interim between annual meetings. It shall carry out the policies and will of the Association. It shall present a written report to the Association at its annual meeting.

ARTICLE IX - ASSOCIATIONAL COUNCIL

Section 1. Composition. The Association shall have an Associational Council composed of the director of missions as chairman, the Moderator, the associational Sunday School director, the associational Church Training director, the associational Women on Missions director, the associational Brotherhood director, the associational Media director, the associational Missions Development director, the associational Music director, the associational Evangelism director, the associational Stewardship director, the associational Seminary Extension director, the associational Vacation Bible School director, the associational Youth coordinator, and the chairman of the Executive Committee.

Section 2. Meetings. The Associational Council shall meet at least once per quarter.

Section 3. Duties. The Associational Council shall coordinate the activities of the associational organizations and plan an promote an associational calendar of activities.

ARTICLE X - EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Section 1. Composition. The Executive Committee shall b composed of the moderator, the vice moderator, the chairman of the Finance Committee, the Missions Development director, and six other members, of whom at least two shall be other than pastors.

Section 2. Meetings. It shall meet not less than monthly but a quorum of five shall be necessary to transact business. Special meetings may be called by the Moderator or a majority of the Committee.

Section 3. Organization. The Committee may establish such internal organization as it shall deem appropriate but shall elect a Secretary to record the minutes of its meetings. In the absence of other action, the Moderator shall serve as chair.

Section 4. Duties. The Executive Committee shall administer all matters committed to it by the Association or its Associational Board and decide on routine and emergency matters between sessions of the Associational Board. It shall initiate and recommend matters concerning business management and approve the employment of all personnel, except the director of missions. Upon recommendation of the Missions Development Council, it shall review applications for membership in the Association from newly constituted churches. It shall provide annually for an audit of the treasurer's records and report the condition of the financial records to the Association. It shall give full guidance and direction to the director of missions in formulating plans and promoting the work of the Association in general. It shall report quarterly to the Associational Board.

Section 5. Function as Corporate Board. The currently serving Executive Committee shall, meeting and acting together, constitute the Board of Directors of the South Fork Baptist Association. Such Board of Directors shall change by and in the same procedure as for the terms of the Executive Committee so that the Board of Directors shall perpetually be the same as the Executive Committee.

In their capacity as Directors, they shall have the duties and responsibilities attendant to Directors, subject however, to the limitations set forth in the Charter and Bylaws. The Directors shall not have power except as expressly authorized by the Association meeting in proper session purchase or sell or encumber any real or personal property, to install or remove officers or staff, to amend the Bylaws or Charter, or to bind the corporation to any contract. Consistent with our spiritual principals, Baptist policy, and long term practice, the Association as a whole retains the authority to govern the affairs, spiritual and temporal, of the Association in the manner established by its spiritual principles and as established by custom and these Bylaws.

Section 6. Corporate Officers. Whenever required by law or practice, the Moderator shall serve as President of the Corporation, having, however, only such powers to act for the Association as are expressly granted by these Bylaws or other proper action, and having no power absent such authorization to bind the corporation in any matter. In a similar manner and subject to the same limitations, the Vice-moderator shall serve as Vice President. The Clerk shall serve as Secretary to the Corporation and the Treasurer as Treasurer.

ARTICLE XI - ORGANIZATIONS

Section 1. Organizations: The Association shall encourage and promote such associational organizations as Sunday School, Discipleship Training, Women on Missions, Brotherhood, Media, Missions Development Council, Music, Evangelism Council, Stewardship Council, Seminary Extension, Vacation Bible School, Youth and such other organizations which are in keeping with the purpose of the Association with their full staffs and programs necessary for the promotion of the work.

Section 2. Election of Organizational Leaders and Workers. The Leaders and Workers of these organizations shall be elected by the Association in its annual meeting and shall assume their duties at the close of the annual meeting. They shall be enlisted for a two year commitment, renewed annually, with a maximum tenure of five years. Vacancies occurring between meetings shall be filled by the Executive Committee.

Section 3. Duties of Organizational Leaders.

A. Generally. Organizational directors shall serve on the Associational Council.
B. The Sunday School director shall promote and supervise the Sunday School program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions.

G. The Vacation Bible School director shall promote and supervise the Vacation Bible School program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions.
H. The Missions Development Council shall promote and supervise the mission program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions. The council shall be headed by a Missions Development director, who, with the director of missions, will determine the need for other council members based on the areas of missions where emphasis is to be placed.
I. The Media director shall direct and supervise the Media program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions.
J. The Evangelism Council shall promote and supervise the Evangelism program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions.
K. The Stewardship Council shall promote and supervise the Stewardship program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions. The director is a member of the Finance Committee.

L. The Seminary Extension director shall promote and supervise the Seminary Extension program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions.

M. The Youth coordinator shall promote and supervise the Youth program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions.

ARTICLE XII - COMMITTEES

Section 1. Committee on Committees.

A. Composition. The moderator shall appoint at the annual meeting of the Association two replacements for those whose terms expire or for any vacancy that may exist on the Committee on Committees. This committee shall consist of six members of whom at least two shall be other than pastors.

B. Duties. The Committee on Committees shall nominate the members of the standing committees, present them for election by the Association, fill any committee vacancies that may occur between annual meetings, report these to the Associational Board, and appoint special committees that may be authorized by the Association or its Associational Board.

Section 2. Standing Committees. Members of all committees shall be elected to serve on a rotating basis of not more than three years. The Association shall have the following standing committees:

A. The Executive Committee—See Article X

B. The Finance Committee

25. Composition. The Finance Committee shall be composed of the treasurer, the Stewardship director, and six other members, of whom at lease two shall be other than pastors.

26. Duties. The Finance Committee shall consult with the appropriate leadership of the associational organizations, committees, and officers, then plan and present to the Associational Board in its last meeting prior to the annual meeting of the Association an annual budget to be approved by the Board and present it to the Association at the annual meeting for final approval. This committee shall have the general oversight and administration of the financial affairs of the Association, and make a quarterly report to the Associational Board. The chairman is a member of the Executive Committee.

C. The Nominating Committee

1. Composition. The Nominating Committee shall be composed of six members, of whom at least two shall be other than pastors.

2. Duties. The Nominating Committee shall nominate at the annual meeting of the Association the officers of the Association (with the exception of the moderator and vice moderator), organizational officers according to Articles VI and VII of the Constitution, and associational representatives for the various institutions and agencies of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.

D. The Program Committee

1. Composition. The Program Committee shall be composed of six members, of whom at lease two shall be other than pastors.

2. Duties. The Program Committee shall prepare a printed program for the annual meeting of the Association which shall be sent to all persons on the program and to all pastors at least thirty days before the annual meeting. It shall direct the enrollment of the messengers at the annual meeting. It shall recommend the place or places for the next annual meeting and the preacher and alternates for the annual sermon.

E. The Ordination Committee
   1. Composition. The Ordination Committee shall be composed of six pastors.
   2. Duties. The Ordination Committee shall, upon request by a member church, assist with the examination and ordination of a candidate for the gospel ministry.

F. The Resolutions Committee
   1. Composition. The Resolutions Committee shall be composed of three members, of whom at least one shall be other than pastors.
   2. Duties. The Resolutions Committee shall present to the Association any resolutions it may deem wise. All resolutions presented to the Association shall be referred to the Resolutions Committee, except that by a two-thirds vote of the messengers present on the first day of the annual meeting, the rules may be suspended and a resolution may be taken up for immediate consideration.

G. The Christian Life and Public Affairs Committee
   1. Composition. The Christian Life and Public Affairs Committee shall be composed of three members, of whom at least one shall be other than a pastor.
   2. Duties. The Christian Life and Public Affairs Committee shall recommend ways in which the Association can work for the promotion of civic righteousness and social uplift.

H. The Student Assistance Committee
   1. Composition. The Student Assistance Committee shall be composed of six members.
   2. Duties. The Student Assistance Committee shall receive requests and make decisions concerning disbursements of available funds for student assistance.

I. The Properties Committee
   1. Composition. The Properties Committee shall be composed of three members, of whom at least one shall be a pastor.
   2. Duties. The Properties Committee is responsible for supervising the maintenance of the building and grounds of the Association as budgeted. Additional recommendations shall be referred to the Associational Board.

Section 3. Other Committees. The Association or the Associational Board may authorize other committees as they deem appropriate. For all such other committees, the body so authorizing shall establish by resolution in the minutes their composition, duties and terms.

ARTICLE XIII - ASSOCIATIONAL YEAR

The associational year shall begin October 1 and close September 30.

ARTICLE XIV - STAFF

Section 1. The Association or the Associational Board may establish such staff positions as they deem appropriate for the work of the Association, and shall establish for each position a job description, and means of supervision and termination. Employed personnel, unless otherwise determined by the Association, as may be provided in the associational budget, shall be employed by the Executive Committee.

Section 2. Appropriate personnel policies shall be established and set forth in an employee handbook.

Section 3. Director of Missions

A. Nomination and Election. A director of missions shall be recommended by the Executive Committee. This person shall be presented to and elected by the Association or the Associational Board which shall determine the salary/benefits.

B. Duties. The director of missions shall work under the guidance of the Executive Committee and serve as a member of all committees.

C. Termination. The director of missions may be dismissed by a majority vote of the Associational Board at a regular or specially called meeting, provided, however, that one week's written notice of such a pending vote must be provided in writing to the director or missions and members of the Associational Board and all member churches. The Executive Committee by two thirds vote may place the director of missions or any other staff member on administrative leave with pay pending final action.

ARTICLE XV - POLICY MANUAL

The Associational officers and staff shall assure the creation and maintenance of a Policy and Procedure Manual which shall include the various policies which are established by the Association and its various committees, boards councils or agencies including but no limited to employee policies, policies regarding use of facilities, vehicles, expense accounts, and similar matters. The Manual shall be maintained at the Associational office.

ARTICLE XVI - FINANCES

Section 1. Budget. The budget shall be prepared and adopted in the manner set forth in these Bylaws.

Section 2. Accounting Procedures. All Funds received for any and all purposes shall pass through the hands of the treasurer, and be properly recorded on the books of the Association. A system of accounting that will adequately provide for the handling of all funds shall be the responsibility of the Finance Committee.

Section 3. Expenditures and Receipts of Funds.

1. No funds shall be disbursed without the expressed authorization of the Association under the provisions of these Bylaws as provided for in the budget or separate authorization.
2. No designated funds shall be received except where the Association or an appropriate agency thereof has approved the receipt of funds for the designated cause. Separate accounting shall be maintained for all designated gifts and funds.

3. The receipt of gifts of real or personal property must be approved by the Executive Committee.

Section 4. Inspection. The general financial reports and audit reports of the Association are available for inspection by the authorized representative of any member church, or any officer of the Association.

Section 5. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Association shall run from January 1 to December 31.

The Association shall operate on a budget approved at the annual meeting to begin the following January 1 and conclude December 31.

ARTICLE XVII - AMENDMENTS TO THE BYLAWS

The Bylaws may be amended at any annual meeting of the Association by a two-thirds majority of the messengers present and voting on the second day, at a time provided by the Program Committee, provided the proposed amendment had been presented to the Executive Committee in writing at lease thirty days prior to the annual meeting, and provided the proposed amendment is read to the Association on the first day of the annual meeting.

Articles of Incorporation

A NON-PROFIT CORPORATION

I, the undersigned natural person of the age of eighteen or more, acting as incorporator for the purpose of creating a nonprofit corporation under the laws of the State of North Carolina, as contained in Chapter 55A of the General Statutes of North Carolina, entitled "Nonprofit Corporation Act," and the several amendments thereto, do hereby set forth:

Article I - Name

The name of the corporation is South Fork Baptist Association, and is located in Lincolnton, Lincoln County, North Carolina

Article II - Duration

The period of duration of the corporation shall be perpetual.

Article III - Character

The South Fork Baptist Association is, in spiritual character and legal identity, an association of churches through their messengers and other representatives. The Association is independent and sovereign in its own sphere, but shall never attempt to exercise any authority over the internal affairs of the churches.

Article IV - Purposes

A. The purposes of this Association shall be to provide a cooperative and orderly means through which our family of affiliated Baptist churches may:

1. provide servanthood focused missions and ministries;
2. encourage evangelism, stewardship, training and discipleship;
3. promote fellowship among ministers and churches as together we share the Gospel of Jesus Christ in word and deed; and
4. cooperate with the Baptist State Convention and the Southern Baptist Convention.

B. In furtherance of its purposes, and to the extent necessary to carry out such purposes, the corporation

1. Shall have all the powers given to and possessed by a North Carolina Corporation organized under the North Carolina Nonprofit Corporation Act.
2. May engage in any lawful activity within the purposes for which the corporation may be organized which are incidental to and in furtherance of the exempt purposes of the corporation.

C. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, officers or other private persons, except to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes as set forth in the Articles.

D. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporations shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public off-ice. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future U.S. Internal Revenue Law) or (b) by any corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future U.S. Internal Revenue Law).

Article V - Government

The government of this association shall be Baptistic in nature, and the final authority for the operation and management of the affairs of this corporation, spiritual and temporal, shall be vested in the member churches of the corporation, which authority shall be exercised in the manner set forth in the Bylaws. Members alone, acting in the manner set forth in the Bylaws, and through the messengers and representatives, shall have the authority to adopt and amend Bylaws, approve budgets, receive members and govern and conduct the affairs of this corporation, subject to these Articles. Elected messengers shall represent the member churches at all meetings and their votes shall be binding as the votes of the represented churches. Such messengers and other persons shall be allowed, and/or elected to attend the Association meetings in accordance with the Bylaws.

The officers of the Association shall be those elected officers whose qualifications, duties and terms are set forth in the Bylaws. Fulfilling the duties of the corporate Board of Directors shall be the Executive Committee within the Associational Board as set forth in the Bylaws, and their powers shall be subject to the limits set forth therein. The Moderator shall be chairman of the Board.

At all times when the membership is not in formal session, the Association shall be managed by the Associational Board, its Executive Committee, and Associational Council as set forth in the Bylaws.

Article VI - Members

The corporation shall have two classes of members as provided in the Bylaws and all member churches shall be accepted in the manner set forth in the Bylaws. All present member churches of the Association shall automatically become members of the corporation.

Article VII - Initial Directors

The number of initial directors shall be eight, and the initial directors shall be the same as the current Executive Committee of the South Fork Baptist Association, whose names and addresses are as follows:

Earl Pennell, 1923 Hidden Valley Ave, Lincolnton, N.C. 28092
Hartwell Condrey, 1256 Sigmon Rd., Lincolnton, N.C. 28092

Shirley Alexander, 1752 Arden Dr., Lincolnton, N.C. 28092
Raymond Hamrick, 5045 E. Maiden Rd., Maiden, N.C. 28650

Article VIII - Dissolution

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the board of directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes of the corporation in such a manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for religious purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future U.S. Internal Revenue Law), as the board of directors shall determine. Priority shall be given to churches and ministries in affiliation with the Southern Baptist Convention or the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be dispersed by the Superior Court of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

Article IX - Registered Agent and Office, Principal Place of Operations

The address of the initial registered office and principal office and place of operations of the corporation in North Carolina is 2261 Laboratory Road, Lincoln County, Lincolnton, N.C. 28092, and the registered agent is Glain S. Pennell.

Article X - Incorporator

The name and address of the incorporator is Lynn R. Buzzard, 30 Kivett Hall,(P.O. Box 891) Buies Creek, North Carolina 27506.

B. In furtherance of its purposes, and to the extent necessary to carry out such purposes, the corporation

In TESTIMONY WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands, this the 28th day of October, 1997.

Lynn R. Buzzard

State of North Carolina

BYLAWS

PREAMBLE

We, the Baptist churches of Jesus Christ, composing the South Fork Baptist Association of North Carolina, convinced of the necessity of an association of churches in order to promote fellowship, missions education, Christian service, the preaching of the gospel and to cooperate with the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and the Southern Baptist Convention in their work, do hereby agree and subscribe to the following articles.

Article I - NAME

The name of the body shall be the South Fork Baptist Association of North Carolina, hereinafter referred to as the Association.

Article II - AUTHORITY

The Association claims to be independent and sovereign in its own sphere, but shall never attempt to exercise any authority over the internal affairs of the churches.

Article III - ARTICLES OF FAITH

The Articles of Faith of the Association, which shall be the basis of fellowship and cooperation, are those adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention in Memphis, Tennessee, May 14, 1925 and amended in Kansas City, Missouri, May 9, 1963.

Article IV - GOVERNMENT

The government of this association shall be Baptistic in nature, and the final authority for the operation and management of the affairs of this corporation, spiritual and temporal, shall be ultimately vested in the member churches of the corporation, which authority shall be exercised in the manner set forth in the bylaws. Members alone, acting in the manner and through the messengers and representatives, as set forth in the bylaws, shall have the authority to adopt and amend bylaws, approve budgets, receive members and govern and conduct the affairs of this corporation, subject to the following paragraph. Elected "Messengers" shall represent the member churches at all meetings and their votes shall be binding as the votes of the represented church. Such "Messengers" and other persons shall be allowed, and/or elected to attend the Associational meetings in accordance with the bylaws.

Article V - MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Members. Eligible Voters. This Association shall be composed of affiliated churches. Those persons authorized to act while the Association is meeting in session shall consist of the following:

A. All pastors of churches in the Association and the director of missions shall be recognized as messengers.

B. Three for the first one hundred members or fraction thereof, and one for each additional one hundred members or fraction thereof, provided that no church shall have more than ten messengers in addition to the pastor.

Section 2. Process for Receiving Church into Affiliation

The Association may receive other churches into its fellowship upon receipt of letters of dismission from other like associations. It may also receive newly constituted churches whose Articles of Faith harmonize with the generally accepted Articles of Faith among Baptists. Any newly organized church applying for membership in the Association shall be received under the watchcare of the Association for a period of time to prove, through practice and attitude, its place as a cooperating Baptist Church.

A church, upon organization, may apply for membership through the Executive Committee of the Association, upon recommendation of the Missions Development Council. The Missions Development Council, based upon new work guidelines, may recommend at the next annual meeting that the church be received by majority vote into full fellowship of the Association. During this period of watchcare such churches shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of the Association except that their members and/or messengers shall not hold office or vote.

A church under watchcare shall submit to the Association noting the church membership and attendance, financial reports of receipts, disbursements and indebtedness, and ownership of real estate.

Section 4. Discipline and Removal from Membership

Any church failing to report the annual letter to the Association, or failing to be represented at the annual meeting or failing to contribute to associational and denominational missions, for two consecutive years, shall be notified by the Executive Committee that if their failure is not remedied by the next annual meeting, recommendation shall be made to the Association acting in annual session to remove said church from the fellowship of the Association.

By a two-thirds majority vote at an annual meeting or other properly called special meeting of the Association, any church may be removed from membership in the Association. Any motion to remove such status must, however, be made by the Executive Committee which prior to any vote shall advise the church subject to such action of the proposed motion and provide an opportunity for the church to address the Committee and the Association concerning the issue.

Article VI - MEETINGS OF THE ASSOCIATION IN SESSION

Section 1. Annual Meeting. The Association shall meet annually on Monday and Tuesday after the third Sunday in October, unless otherwise set by the Associational Board. The annual meeting of the Association shall be held at such places as may be decided by the Association, upon recommendation of the Program Committee, in annual meeting. Change of places that may become necessary shall be decided by the Executive Committee. Each session of the Association shall be opened and closed with prayer.

Section 2. Special Called Meetings. The moderator, at the request of the Executive Committee, or any twenty churches requested such in writing, shall call special meetings of the Association, provided two weeks written notice is given to the member churches. The call shall set forth the purpose of the meeting and only matters noted in the call may be the subject of action at the called meeting.

Section 3. Quorum. Messengers to the annual meeting from thirty-three and one-third percent of the member-churches of the Association shall constitute a quorum.

Section 4. The parliamentary guide of the Association shall be Robert's Rules of Order (latest revised edition), except that the moderator, absent objection or with the consent of the body, may modify such rules in the interests of open discussion and process.

Section 5. Except as otherwise provided herein, action by the Association in session shall be by majority vote of those present and voting. No voting by proxy or absentee ballot shall be permitted in any election or vote in any matter.

Article VII - OFFICERS

Section 1. Officers: The officers of the Association shall be moderator, vice moderator, clerk, treasurer, parliamentarian, and historian.

Section 2. Election: The officers shall be elected by the Association in its annual meeting and shall assume their duties at the close of the annual meeting. Nominations for moderator and vice moderator shall be made from the floor. The Nomination Committee will present names for all other officers.

Section 3. Vacancy: Vacancies occurring between annual meetings shall be filled by the Executive Committee, except the office of the Moderator, in which the vice moderator shall automatically become moderator.

Section 4. Moderator. The moderator shall preside over the meetings of the Association according to the Bylaws, and appoint two replacements for those whose terms expire or for any vacancy that may exist on the Committee on Committees. He shall be chairman of the Associational Board and shall be a member of all committees. He shall be ineligible to succeed himself after the second successive term.

Section 5. Vice Moderator. The vice moderator shall preside in the absence, or, at the pleasure of the moderator, and shall be vice chairman of the Associational Board. The vice moderator is a member of the Executive Committee.

Section 6. Clerk. The clerk shall send annual report forms to the member churches at least 30 days prior to the annual meeting; keep an accurate record of the proceedings of the Association; supervise the printing and distributing of the minutes to the member churches, subject to the approval of the Executive Committee; keep on file copies of the minutes, records and other documents of the Association; and serve as secretary of the Associational Board. For these services, the clerk shall receive an honorarium to be decided by the Association and paid quarterly.

Section 7. Treasurer. The treasurer shall receive and bank all funds of the Association in the name of the Association, disburse the same upon instructions from the Association, its Associational Board or as designated in the budget; render an accurate report of receipts and disbursements at the annual meeting; give a report at each quarterly Associational Board meeting; keep books available and up to date for examination. For mutual protection, the treasurer shall be bonded in such an amount as the Executive Committee shall direct. For these services, the treasurer shall receive an honorarium to be decided by the Association and paid quarterly. The treasurer is a member of the Finance Committee.

Section 8. Parliamentarian. The parliamentarian shall advise and assist the moderator and the Association with respect to all matters, involving proper parliamentary procedure, includes annual meeting, board meetings, special meetings, etc.

Section 9. Historian. The historian shall collect and preserve historical data on the Association and its churches.

Article VIII - ASSOCIATIONAL BOARD

Section 1. Composition: The Association shall have an Associational Board composed of the officers of the Association, the director of missions, the associational Sunday School director, the associational Discipleship Training director, the associational Women on Missions director, the associational Brotherhood director, the associational Media director, the associational Missions Development director, the associational Music director, the associational Evangelism director, the associational Stewardship director, the associational Seminary Extension director, the associational Vacation Bible School director, the associational Youth coordinator, the chairmen of associational standing committees, the pastors of the member churches, and two members from each member church to be elected by the church. The two members from each church shall be duly certified in the annual letter.

Section 2. Meetings. The Associational Board shall hold four quarterly meetings and others as necessary. Special meetings of the Associational Board may be called by the Executive Committee, provided written notice is given all members at least one week prior to the meeting, and the purpose is expressly set forth. Only matters noted in the notice may be acted on at such a called meeting.

Section 3. Duties. The Associational Board shall act for the Association in the interim between annual meetings. It shall carry out the policies and will of the Association. It shall present a written report to the Association at its annual meeting.

Article IX - ASSOCIATIONAL COUNCIL

Section 1. Composition. The Association shall have an Associational Council composed of the director of missions as chairman, the Moderator, the associational Sunday School director, the associational Church Training director, the associational Women on Missions director, the associational Brotherhood director, the associational Media director, the associational Missions Development director, the associational Music director, the associational Evangelism director, the associational Stewardship director, the associational Seminary Extension director, the associational Vacation Bible School director, the associational Youth coordinator, and the chairman of the Executive Committee.

Section 2. Meetings. The Associational Council shall meet at least once per quarter.

Section 3. Duties. The Associational Council shall coordinate the activities of the associational organizations and plan an promote an associational calendar of activities.

Article X - EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Section 1. Composition. The Executive Committee shall b composed of the moderator, the vice moderator, the chairman of the Finance Committee, the Missions Development director, and six other members, of whom at least two shall be other than pastors.

Section 2. Meetings. It shall meet not less than monthly but a quorum of five shall be necessary to transact business. Special meetings may be called by the Moderator or a majority of the Committee.

Section 3. Organization. The Committee may establish such internal organization as it shall deem appropriate but shall elect a Secretary to record the minutes of its meetings. In the absence of other action, the Moderator shall serve as chair.

Section 4. Duties. The Executive Committee shall administer all matters committed to it by the Association or its Associational Board and decide on routine and emergency matters between sessions of the Associational Board. It shall initiate and recommend matters concerning business management and approve the employment of all personnel, except the director of missions. Upon recommendation of the Missions Development Council, it shall review applications for membership in the Association from newly constituted churches. It shall provide annually for an audit of the treasurer's records and report the condition of the financial records to the Association. It shall give full guidance and direction to the director of missions in formulating plans and promoting the work of the Association in general. It shall report quarterly to the Associational Board.

Section 5. Function as Corporate Board. The currently serving Executive Committee shall, meeting and acting together, constitute the Board of Directors of the South Fork Baptist Association. Such Board of Directors shall change by and in the same procedure as for the terms of the Executive Committee so that the Board of Directors shall perpetually be the same as the Executive Committee.

In their capacity as Directors, they shall have the duties and responsibilities attendant to Directors, subject however, to the limitations set forth in the Charter and Bylaws. The Directors shall not have power except as expressly authorized by the Association meeting in proper session purchase or sell or encumber any real or personal property, to install or remove officers or staff, to amend the Bylaws or Charter, or to bind the corporation to any contract. Consistent with our spiritual principals, Baptist policy, and long term practice, the Association as a whole retains the authority to govern the affairs, spiritual and temporal, of the Association in the manner established by its spiritual principles and as established by custom and these Bylaws.

Section 6. Corporate Officers. Whenever required by law or practice, the Moderator shall serve as President of the Corporation, having, however, only such powers to act for the Association as are expressly granted by these Bylaws or other proper action, and having no power absent such authorization to bind the corporation in any matter. In a similar manner and subject to the same limitations, the Vice-moderator shall serve as Vice President. The Clerk shall serve as Secretary to the Corporation and the Treasurer as Treasurer.

Article XI - ORGANIZATIONS

Section 1. Organizations: The Association shall encourage and promote such associational organizations as Sunday School, Discipleship Training, Women on Missions, Brotherhood, Media, Missions Development Council, Music, Evangelism Council, Stewardship Council, Seminary Extension, Vacation Bible School, Youth and such other organizations which are in keeping with the purpose of the Association with their full staffs and programs necessary for the promotion of the work.

Section 2. Election of Organizational Leaders and Workers. The Leaders and Workers of these organizations shall be elected by the Association in its annual meeting and shall assume their duties at the close of the annual meeting. They shall be enlisted for a two year commitment, renewed annually, with a maximum tenure of five years. Vacancies occurring between meetings shall be filled by the Executive Committee.

Section 3. Duties of Organizational Leaders.

A. Generally. Organizational directors shall serve on the Associational Council.
B. The Sunday School director shall promote and supervise the Sunday School program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions.
C. The Discipleship Training director shall promote and supervise the Discipleship Training program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions.
D. The Women on Missions director shall promote and supervise the Women on Missions program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions and in keeping with the Constitution and Bylaws of the Women on Missions of South Fork Baptist Association.
E. The Brotherhood director shall promote and supervise the Brotherhood program of the association in cooperation with the director of missions.
F. The Music director shall promote and supervise the Music program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions.
G. The Vacation Bible School director shall promote and supervise the Vacation Bible School program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions.
H. The Missions Development Council shall promote and supervise the mission program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions. The council shall be headed by a Missions Development director, who, with the director of missions, will determine the need for other council members based on the areas of missions where emphasis is to be placed.
I. The Media director shall direct and supervise the Media program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions.
J. The Evangelism Council shall promote and supervise the Evangelism program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions.
K. The Stewardship Council shall promote and supervise the Stewardship program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions. The director is a member of the Finance Committee.
L. The Seminary Extension director shall promote and supervise the Seminary Extension program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions.

M. The Youth coordinator shall promote and supervise the Youth program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions.

Article XII - COMMITTEES

Section 1. Committee on Committees.

A. Composition. The moderator shall appoint at the annual meeting of the Association two replacements for those whose terms expire or for any vacancy that may exist on the Committee on Committees. This committee shall consist of six members of whom at least two shall be other than pastors.

B. Duties. The Committee on Committees shall nominate the members of the standing committees, present them for election by the Association, fill any committee vacancies that may occur between annual meetings, report these to the Associational Board, and appoint special committees that may be authorized by the Association or its Associational Board.

Section 2. Standing Committees. Members of all committees shall be elected to serve on a rotating basis of not more than three years. The Association shall have the following standing committees:

A. The Executive Committee—See Article X

B. The Finance Committee

25. Composition. The Finance Committee shall be composed of the treasurer, the Stewardship director, and six other members, of whom at lease two shall be other than pastors.

26. Duties. The Finance Committee shall consult with the appropriate leadership of the associational organizations, committees, and officers, then plan and present to the Associational Board in its last meeting prior to the annual meeting of the Association an annual budget to be approved by the Board and present it to the Association at the annual meeting for final approval. This committee shall have the general oversight and administration of the financial affairs of the Association, and make a quarterly report to the Associational Board. The chairman is a member of the Executive Committee.

C. The Nominating Committee

1. Composition. The Nominating Committee shall be composed of six members, of whom at least two shall be other than pastors.

2. Duties. The Nominating Committee shall nominate at the annual meeting of the Association the officers of the Association (with the exception of the moderator and vice moderator), organizational officers according to Articles VI and VII of the Constitution, and associational representatives for the various institutions and agencies of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.

D. The Program Committee

1. Composition. The Program Committee shall be composed of six members, of whom at lease two shall be other than pastors.

2. Duties. The Program Committee shall prepare a printed program for the annual meeting of the Association which shall be sent to all persons on the program and to all pastors at least thirty days before the annual meeting. It shall direct the enrollment of the messengers at the annual meeting. It shall recommend the place or places for the next annual meeting and the preacher and alternates for the annual sermon.

E. The Ordination Committee
   1. Composition. The Ordination Committee shall be composed of six pastors.
   2. Duties. The Ordination Committee shall, upon request by a member church, assist with the examination and ordination of a candidate for the gospel ministry.

F. The Resolutions Committee
   1. Composition. The Resolutions Committee shall be composed of three members, of whom at least one shall be other than pastors.
   2. Duties. The Resolutions Committee shall present to the Association any resolutions it may deem wise. All resolutions presented to the Association shall be referred to the Resolutions Committee, except that by a two-thirds vote of the messengers present on the first day of the annual meeting, the rules may be suspended and a resolution may be taken up for immediate consideration.

G. The Christian Life and Public Affairs Committee
   1. Composition. The Christian Life and Public Affairs Committee shall be composed of three members, of whom at least one shall be other than a pastor.
   2. Duties. The Christian Life and Public Affairs Committee shall recommend ways in which the Association can work for the promotion of civic righteousness and social uplift.

H. The Student Assistance Committee
   1. Composition. The Student Assistance Committee shall be composed of six members.
   2. Duties. The Student Assistance Committee shall receive requests and make decisions concerning disbursements of available funds for student assistance.

I. The Properties Committee
   1. Composition. The Properties Committee shall be composed of three members, of whom at least one shall be a pastor.
   2. Duties. The Properties Committee is responsible for supervising the maintenance of the building and grounds of the Association as budgeted. Additional recommendations shall be referred to the Associational Board.

Section 3. Other Committees. The Association or the Associational Board may authorize other committees as they deem appropriate. For all such other committees, the body so authorizing shall establish by resolution in the minutes their composition, duties and terms.

Article XIII - ASSOCIATIONAL YEAR

The associational year shall begin October 1 and close September 30.

Article XIV - STAFF

Section 1. The Association or the Associational Board may establish such staff positions as they deem appropriate for the work of the Association, and shall establish for each position a job description, and means of supervision and termination. Employed personnel, unless otherwise determined by the Association, as may be provided in the associational budget, shall be employed by the Executive Committee.

Section 2. Appropriate personnel policies shall be established and set forth in an employee handbook.

Section 3. Director of Missions

A. Nomination and Election. A director of missions shall be recommended by the Executive Committee. This person shall be presented to and elected by the Association or the Associational Board which shall determine the salary/benefits.

B. Duties. The director of missions shall work under the guidance of the Executive Committee and serve as a member of all committees.

C. Termination. The director of missions may be dismissed by a majority vote of the Associational Board at a regular or specially called meeting, provided, however, that one week's written notice of such a pending vote must be provided in writing to the director or missions and members of the Associational Board and all member churches. The Executive Committee by two thirds vote may place the director of missions or any other staff member on administrative leave with pay pending final action.

Article XV - POLICY MANUAL

The Associational officers and staff shall assure the creation and maintenance of a Policy and Procedure Manual which shall include the various policies which are established by the Association and its various committees, boards councils or agencies including but no limited to employee policies, policies regarding use of facilities, vehicles, expense accounts, and similar matters. The Manual shall be maintained at the Associational office.

Article XVI - FINANCES

Section 1. Budget. The budget shall be prepared and adopted in the manner set forth in these Bylaws.

Section 2. Accounting Procedures. All Funds received for any and all purposes shall pass through the hands of the treasurer, and be properly recorded on the books of the Association. A system of accounting that will adequately provide for the handling of all funds shall be the responsibility of the Finance Committee.

Section 3. Expenditures and Receipts of Funds.

1. No funds shall be disbursed without the expressed authorization of the Association under the provisions of these Bylaws as provided for in the budget or separate authorization.
2. No designated funds shall be received except where the Association or an appropriate agency thereof has approved the receipt of funds for the designated cause. Separate accounting shall be maintained for all designated gifts and funds.
3. The receipt of gifts of real or personal property must be approved by the Executive Committee.

Section 4. Inspection. The general financial reports and audit reports of the Association are available for inspection by the authorized representative of any member church, or any officer of the Association.

Section 5. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Church shall run from January 1 to December 31.

The Association shall operate on a budget approved at the annual meeting to begin the following January 1 and conclude December 31.

Article XVII - AMENDMENTS TO THE BYLAWS

The Bylaws may be amended at any annual meeting of the Association by a two-thirds majority of the messengers present and voting on the second day, at a time provided by the Program Committee, provided the proposed amendment had been presented to the Executive Committee in writing at lease thirty days prior to the annual meeting, and provided the proposed amendment is read to the Association on the first day of the annual meeting.

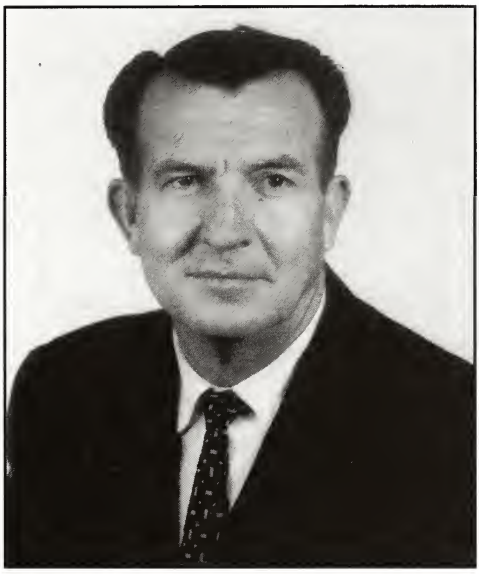
In Memoriam

DR. JOSEPH A. CAMPBELL
March 21, 1918
October 5, 1999



Dr. Campbell attended Wingate College and Wake Forest University, and was a graduate of Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary and Luther Rice Seminary. He was retired from First Baptist Church in High Shoals, North Carolina, and was a member of First Baptist Church, Lincolnton. During his career he served many churches in both North and South Carolina. For over 40 years he was a faithful minister of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, a devoted husband to his wife, Mary, a loving father to Tony, Timothy, Phillip, Jo Ann, and Gloria. He will be long remembered by his family, friends, and colleagues in ministry.

In Memoriam

REV. ISSAC DAVID PHILLIPS

July 14, 1917

August 24, 1999

I.D. Phillips was born in Sylacauga, Alabama and moved to Cramerton, North Carolina as a child. He joined the United States Army at the age of 17 and served in Panama. He was married to Virginia Clubb in 1938 and they were the parents of fours sons: David Milton, Michael Joseph, Stephen Allen, and Timothy Hampton. Rev. Phillips graduated from Gardner-Webb College and was ordained by the Love Memorial Baptist Church in Gastonia. He served as Pastor of Faith Church, Belmont; Plainview, Dallas; Startown First, Newton; and retired from Southside in Lincolnton. He stayed busy in retirement with interim pastorates and supply.

To the very end of his life he had a warm smile, firm handshake, and a desire to share the message of Jesus Christ. He is greatly missed by his family and by all the family of God who benefitted from his ministry.

of

A NON-PROFIT CORPORATION

I, the undersigned natural person of the age of eighteen or more, acting as incorporator for the purpose of creating a nonprofit corporation under the laws of the State of North Carolina, as contained in Chapter 55A of the General Statutes of North Carolina, entitled "Nonprofit Corporation Act," and the several amendments thereto, do hereby set forth:

Article I - Name

The name of the corporation is South Fork Baptist Association, and is located in Lincolnton, Lincoln County, North Carolina

Article II - Duration

The period of duration of the corporation shall be perpetual.

Article III - Character

The South Fork Baptist Association is, in spiritual character and legal identity, an association of churches through their messengers and other representatives. The Association is independent and sovereign in its own sphere, but shall never attempt to exercise any authority over the internal affairs of the churches.

Article IV - Purposes

A. The purposes of this Association shall be to provide a cooperative and orderly means through which our family of affiliated Baptist churches may:

1. provide servanthood focused missions and ministries;
2. encourage evangelism, stewardship, training and discipleship;
3. promote fellowship among ministers and churches as together we share the Gospel of Jesus Christ in word and deed; and
4. cooperate with the Baptist State Convention and the Southern Baptist Convention.

B. In furtherance of its purposes, and to the extent necessary to carry out such purposes, the corporation

1. Shall have all the powers given to and possessed by a North Carolina Corporation organized under the North Carolina Nonprofit Corporation Act.
2. May engage in any lawful activity within the purposes for which the corporation may be organized which are incidental to and in furtherance of the exempt purposes of the corporation.

C. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, officers or other private persons, except to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes as set forth in the Articles.

D. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporations shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future U.S. Internal Revenue Law) or (b) by any corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future U.S. Internal Revenue Law).

Article V - Government

The government of this association shall be Baptistic in nature, and the final authority for the operation and management of the affairs of this corporation, spiritual and temporal, shall be vested in the member churches of the corporation, which authority shall be exercised in the manner set forth in the Bylaws. Members alone, acting in the manner set forth in the Bylaws, and through the messengers and representatives, shall have the authority to adopt and amend Bylaws, approve budgets, receive members and govern and conduct the affairs of this corporation, subject to these Articles. Elected messengers shall represent the member churches at all meetings and their votes shall be binding as the votes of the represented churches. Such messengers and other persons shall be allowed, and/or elected to attend the Association meetings in accordance with the Bylaws.

The officers of the Association shall be those elected officers whose qualifications, duties and terms are set forth in the Bylaws. Fulfilling the duties of the corporate Board of Directors shall be the Executive Committee within the Associational Board as set forth in the Bylaws, and their powers shall be subject to the limits set forth therein. The Moderator shall be chairman of the Board.

At all times when the membership is not in formal session, the Association shall be managed by the Associational Board, its Executive Committee, and Associational Council as set forth in the Bylaws.

Article VI - Members

The corporation shall have two classes of members as provided in the Bylaws and all member churches shall be accepted in the manner set forth in the Bylaws. All present member churches of the Association shall automatically become members of the corporation.

Article VII - Initial Directors

The number of initial directors shall be eight, and the initial directors shall be the same as the current Executive Committee of the South Fork Baptist Association, whose names and addresses are as follows:

Earl Pennell, 1923 Hidden Valley Ave, Lincolnton, N.C. 28092

Shirley Alexander, 1752 Arden Dr., Lincolnton, N.C. 28092
Raymond Hamrick, 5045 E. Maiden Rd., Maiden, N.C. 28650

Article VIII - Dissolution

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the board of directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes of the corporation in such a manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for religious purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future U.S. Internal Revenue Law), as the board of directors shall determine. Priority shall be given to churches and ministries in affiliation with the Southern Baptist Convention or the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be dispersed by the Superior Court of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

Article IX - Registered Agent and Office, Principal Place of Operations

The address of the initial registered office and principal office and place of operations of the corporation in North Carolina is 2261 Laboratory Road, Lincoln County, Lincolnton, N.C. 28092, and the registered agent is Glain S. Pennell.

Article X - Incorporator

The name and address of the incorporator is Lynn R. Buzzard, 30 Kivett Hall,(P.O. Box 891) Buies Creek, North Carolina 27506.

BYLAWS

PREAMBLE

We, the Baptist churches of Jesus Christ, composing the South Fork Baptist Association of North Carolina, convinced of the necessity of an association of churches in order to promote fellowship, missions education, Christian service, the preaching of the gospel and to cooperate with the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and the Southern Baptist Convention in their work, do hereby agree and subscribe to the following articles.

Article I - NAME

The name of the body shall be the South Fork Baptist Association of North Carolina, hereinafter referred to as the Association.

Article II - AUTHORITY

The Association claims to be independent and sovereign in its own sphere, but shall never attempt to exercise any authority over the internal affairs of the churches.

Article III - ARTICLES OF FAITH

The Articles of Faith of the Association, which shall be the basis of fellowship and cooperation, are those adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention in Memphis, Tennessee, May 14, 1925 and amended in Kansas City, Missouri, May 9, 1963.

Article IV - GOVERNMENT

The government of this association shall be Baptistic in nature, and the final authority for the operation and management of the affairs of this corporation, spiritual and temporal, shall be ultimately vested in the member churches of the corporation, which authority shall be exercised in the manner set forth in the bylaws. Members alone, acting in the manner and through the messengers and representatives, as set forth in the bylaws, shall have the authority to adopt and amend bylaws, approve budgets, receive members and govern and conduct the affairs of this corporation, subject to the following paragraph. Elected "Messengers" shall represent the member churches at all meetings and their votes shall be binding as the votes of the represented church. Such "Messengers" and other persons shall be allowed, and/or elected to attend the Associational meetings in accordance with the bylaws.

Article V - MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Members. Eligible Voters. This Association shall be composed of affiliated churches. Those persons authorized to act while the Association is meeting in session shall consist of the following:

A. All pastors of churches in the Association and the director of missions shall be recognized as messengers.

B. Three for the first one hundred members or fraction thereof, and one for each additional one hundred members or fraction thereof, provided that no church shall have more than ten messengers in addition to the pastor.

Section 2. Process for Receiving Church into Affiliation

The Association may receive other churches into its fellowship upon receipt of letters of dismission from other like associations. It may also receive newly constituted churches whose Articles of Faith harmonize with the generally accepted Articles of Faith among Baptists. Any newly organized church applying for membership in the Association shall be received under the watchcare of the Association for a period of time to prove, through practice and attitude, its place as a cooperating Baptist Church.

A church, upon organization, may apply for membership through the Executive Committee of the Association, upon recommendation of the Missions Development Council. The Missions Development Council, based upon new work guidelines, may recommend at the next annual meeting that the church be received by majority vote into full fellowship of the Association. During this period of watchcare such churches shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of the Association except that their members and/or messengers shall not hold office or vote.

A church under watchcare shall submit to the Association noting the church membership and attendance, financial reports of receipts, disbursements and indebtedness, and ownership of real estate.

Section 4. Discipline and Removal from Membership

Any church failing to report the annual letter to the Association, or failing to be represented at the annual meeting or failing to contribute to associational and denominational missions, for two consecutive years, shall be notified by the Executive Committee that if their failure is not remedied by the next annual meeting, recommendation shall be made to the Association acting in annual session to remove said church from the fellowship of the Association.

By a two-thirds majority vote at an annual meeting or other properly called special meeting of the Association, any church may be removed from membership in the Association. Any motion to remove such status must, however, be made by the Executive Committee which prior to any vote shall advise the church subject to such action of the proposed motion and provide an opportunity for the church to address the Committee and the Association concerning the issue.

Article VI - MEETINGS OF THE ASSOCIATION IN SESSION

Section 1. Annual Meeting. The Association shall meet annually on Monday and Tuesday after the third Sunday in October, unless otherwise set by the Associational Board. The annual meeting of the Association shall be held at such places as may be decided by the Association, upon recommendation of the Program Committee, in annual meeting. Change of places that may become necessary shall be decided by the Executive Committee. Each session of the Association shall be opened and closed with prayer.

Section 2. Special Called Meetings. The moderator, at the request of the Executive Committee, or any twenty churches requested such in writing, shall call special meetings of the Association, provided two weeks written notice is given to the member churches. The call shall set forth the purpose of the meeting and only matters noted in the call may be the subject of action at the called meeting.

Section 3. Quorum. Messengers to the annual meeting from thirty-three and one-third percent of the member-churches of the Association shall constitute a quorum.

Section 4. The parliamentary guide of the Association shall be Robert's Rules of Order (latest revised edition), except that the moderator, absent objection or with the consent of the body, may modify such rules in the interests of open discussion and process.

Section 5. Except as otherwise provided herein, action by the Association in session shall be by majority vote of those present and voting. No voting by proxy or absentee ballot shall be permitted in any election or vote in any matter.

Article VII - OFFICERS

Section 1. Officers: The officers of the Association shall be moderator, vice moderator, clerk, treasurer, parliamentarian, and historian.

Section 2. Election: The officers shall be elected by the Association in its annual meeting and shall assume their duties at the close of the annual meeting. Nominations for moderator and vice moderator shall be made from the floor. The Nomination Committee will present names for all other officers.

Section 3. Vacancy: Vacancies occurring between annual meetings shall be filled by the Executive Committee, except the office of the Moderator, in which the vice moderator shall automatically become moderator.

Section 4. Moderator. The moderator shall preside over the meetings of the Association according to the Bylaws, and appoint two replacements for those whose terms expire or for any vacancy that may exist on the Committee on Committees. He shall be chairman of the Associational Board and shall be a member of all committees. He shall be ineligible to succeed himself after the second successive term.

Section 5. Vice Moderator. The vice moderator shall preside in the absence, or, at the pleasure of the moderator, and shall be vice chairman of the Associational Board. The vice moderator is a member of the Executive Committee.

Section 6. Clerk. The clerk shall send annual report forms to the member churches at least 30 days prior to the annual meeting; keep an accurate record of the proceedings of the Association; supervise the printing and distributing of the minutes to the member churches, subject to the approval of the Executive Committee; keep on file copies of the minutes, records and other documents of the Association; and serve as secretary of the Associational Board. For these services, the clerk shall receive an honorarium to be decided by the Association and paid quarterly.

Section 7. Treasurer. The treasurer shall receive and bank all funds of the Association in the name of the Association, disburse the same upon instructions from the Association, its Associational Board or as designated in the budget; render an accurate report of receipts and disbursements at the annual meeting; give a report at each quarterly Associational Board meeting; keep books available and up to date for examination. For mutual protection, the treasurer shall be bonded in such an amount as the Executive Committee shall direct. For these services, the treasurer shall receive an honorarium to be decided by the Association and paid quarterly. The treasurer is a member of the Finance Committee.

Section 8. Parliamentarian. The parliamentarian shall advise and assist the moderator and the Association with respect to all matters, involving proper parliamentary procedure, includes annual meeting, board meetings, special meetings, etc.

Section 9. Historian. The historian shall collect and preserve historical data on the Association and its churches.

Article VIII - ASSOCIATIONAL BOARD

Section 1. Composition: The Association shall have an Associational Board composed of the officers of the Association, the director of missions, the associational Sunday School director, the associational Discipleship Training director, the associational Women on Missions director, the associational Brotherhood director, the associational Media director, the associational Missions Development director, the associational Music director, the associational Evangelism director, the associational Stewardship director, the associational Seminary Extension director, the associational Vacation Bible School director, the associational Youth coordinator, the chairmen of associational standing committees, the pastors of the member churches, and two members from each member church to be elected by the church. The two members from each church shall be duly certified in the annual letter.

Section 2. Meetings. The Associational Board shall hold four quarterly meetings and others as necessary. Special meetings of the Associational Board may be called by the Executive Committee, provided written notice is given all members at least one week prior to the meeting, and the purpose is expressly set forth. Only matters noted in the notice may be acted on at such a called meeting.

Section 3. Duties. The Associational Board shall act for the Association in the interim between annual meetings. It shall carry out the policies and will of the Association. It shall present a written report to the Association at its annual meeting.

Article IX - ASSOCIATIONAL COUNCIL

Section 1. Composition. The Association shall have an Associational Council composed of the director of missions as chairman, the Moderator, the associational Sunday School director, the associational Church Training director, the associational Women on Missions director, the associational Brotherhood director, the associational Media director, the associational Missions Development director, the associational Music director, the associational Evangelism director, the associational Stewardship director, the associational Seminary Extension director, the associational Vacation Bible School director, the associational Youth coordinator, and the chairman of the Executive Committee.

Section 2. Meetings. The Associational Council shall meet at least once per quarter.

Section 3. Duties. The Associational Council shall coordinate the activities of the associational organizations and plan and promote an associational calendar of activities.

Article X - EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Section 1. Composition. The Executive Committee shall be composed of the moderator, the vice moderator, the chairman of the Finance Committee, the Missions Development director, and six other members, of whom at least two shall be other than pastors.

Section 2. Meetings. It shall meet not less than monthly but a quorum of five shall be necessary to transact business. Special meetings may be called by the Moderator or a majority of the Committee.

Section 3. Organization. The Committee may establish such internal organization as it shall deem appropriate but shall elect a Secretary to record the minutes of its meetings. In the absence of other action, the Moderator shall serve as chair.

Section 4. Duties. The Executive Committee shall administer all matters committed to it by the Association or its Associational Board and decide on routine and emergency matters between sessions of the Associational Board. It shall initiate and recommend matters concerning business management and approve the employment of all personnel, except the director of missions. Upon recommendation of the Missions Development Council, it shall review applications for membership in the Association from newly constituted churches. It shall provide annually for an audit of the treasurer's records and report the condition of the financial records to the Association. It shall give full guidance and direction to the director of missions in formulating plans and promoting the work of the Association in general. It shall report quarterly to the Associational Board.

Section 5. Function as Corporate Board. The currently serving Executive Committee shall, meeting and acting together, constitute the Board of Directors of the South Fork Baptist Association. Such Board of Directors shall change by and in the same procedure as for the terms of the Executive Committee so that the Board of Directors shall perpetually be the same as the Executive Committee.

In their capacity as Directors, they shall have the duties and responsibilities attendant to Directors, subject however, to the limitations set forth in the Charter and Bylaws. The Directors shall not have power except as expressly authorized by the Association meeting in proper session purchase or sell or encumber any real or personal property, to install or remove officers or staff, to amend the Bylaws or Charter, or to bind the corporation to any contract. Consistent with our spiritual principals, Baptist policy, and long term practice, the Association as a whole retains the authority to govern the affairs, spiritual and temporal, of the Association in the manner established by its spiritual principles and as established by custom and these Bylaws.

Section 6. Corporate Officers. Whenever required by law or practice, the Moderator shall serve as President of the Corporation, having, however, only such powers to act for the Association as are expressly granted by these Bylaws or other proper action, and having no power absent such authorization to bind the corporation in any matter. In a similar manner and subject to the same limitations, the Vice-moderator shall serve as Vice President. The Clerk shall serve as Secretary to the Corporation and the Treasurer as Treasurer.

Article XI - ORGANIZATIONS

Section 1. Organizations: The Association shall encourage and promote such associational organizations as Sunday School, Discipleship Training, Women on Missions, Brotherhood, Media, Missions Development Council, Music, Evangelism Council, Stewardship Council, Seminary Extension, Vacation Bible School, Youth and such other organizations which are in keeping with the purpose of the Association with their full staffs and programs necessary for the promotion of the work.

Section 2. Election of Organizational Leaders and Workers. The Leaders and Workers of these organizations shall be elected by the Association in its annual meeting and shall assume their duties at the close of the annual meeting. They shall be enlisted for a two year commitment, renewed annually, with a maximum tenure of five years. Vacancies occurring between meetings shall be filled by the Executive Committee.

Section 3. Duties of Organizational Leaders.

A. Generally. Organizational directors shall serve on the Associational Council.
B. The Sunday School director shall promote and supervise the Sunday School program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions.
C. The Discipleship Training director shall promote and supervise the Discipleship Training program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions.
D. The Women on Missions director shall promote and supervise the Women on Missions program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions and in keeping with the Constitution and Bylaws of the Women on Missions of South Fork Baptist Association.
E. The Brotherhood director shall promote and supervise the Brotherhood program of the association in cooperation with the director of missions.
F. The Music director shall promote and supervise the Music program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions.
G. The Vacation Bible School director shall promote and supervise the Vacation Bible School program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions.
H. The Missions Development Council shall promote and supervise the mission program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions. The council shall be headed by a Missions Development director, who, with the director of missions, will determine the need for other council members based on the areas of missions where emphasis is to be placed.
I. The Media director shall direct and supervise the Media program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions.
J. The Evangelism Council shall promote and supervise the Evangelism program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions.
K. The Stewardship Council shall promote and supervise the Stewardship program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions. The director is a member of the Finance Committee.
L. The Seminary Extension director shall promote and supervise the Seminary Extension program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions.

M. The Youth coordinator shall promote and supervise the Youth program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions.

Article XII - COMMITTEES

Section 1. Committee on Committees.

A. Composition. The moderator shall appoint at the annual meeting of the Association two replacements for those whose terms expire or for any vacancy that may exist on the Committee on Committees. This committee shall consist of six members of whom at least two shall be other than pastors.

B. Duties. The Committee on Committees shall nominate the members of the standing committees, present them for election by the Association, fill any committee vacancies that may occur between annual meetings, report these to the Associational Board, and appoint special committees that may be authorized by the Association or its Associational Board.

Section 2. Standing Committees. Members of all committees shall be elected to serve on a rotating basis of not more than three years. The Association shall have the following standing committees:

A. The Executive Committee—See Article X

B. The Finance Committee

25. Composition. The Finance Committee shall be composed of the treasurer, the Stewardship director, and six other members, of whom at least two shall be other than pastors.

26. Duties. The Finance Committee shall consult with the appropriate leadership of the associational organizations, committees, and officers, then plan and present to the Associational Board in its last meeting prior to the annual meeting of the Association an annual budget to be approved by the Board and present it to the Association at the annual meeting for final approval. This committee shall have the general oversight and administration of the financial affairs of the Association, and make a quarterly report to the Associational Board. The chairman is a member of the Executive Committee.

C. The Nominating Committee

1. Composition. The Nominating Committee shall be composed of six members, of whom at least two shall be other than pastors.

2. Duties. The Nominating Committee shall nominate at the annual meeting of the Association the officers of the Association (with the exception of the moderator and vice moderator), organizational officers according to Articles VI and VII of the Constitution, and associational representatives for the various institutions and agencies of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.

D. The Program Committee

1. Composition. The Program Committee shall be composed of six members, of whom at least two shall be other than pastors.

2. Duties. The Program Committee shall prepare a printed program for the annual meeting of the Association which shall be sent to all persons on the program and to all pastors at least thirty days before the annual meeting. It shall direct the enrollment of the messengers at the annual meeting. It shall recommend the place or places for the next annual meeting and the preacher and alternates for the annual sermon.

E. The Ordination Committee
   1. Composition. The Ordination Committee shall be composed of six pastors.
   2. Duties. The Ordination Committee shall, upon request by a member church, assist with the examination and ordination of a candidate for the gospel ministry.

F. The Resolutions Committee
   1. Composition. The Resolutions Committee shall be composed of three members, of whom at least one shall be other than pastors.
   2. Duties. The Resolutions Committee shall present to the Association any resolutions it may deem wise. All resolutions presented to the Association shall be referred to the Resolutions Committee, except that by a two-thirds vote of the messengers present on the first day of the annual meeting, the rules may be suspended and a resolution may be taken up for immediate consideration.

G. The Christian Life and Public Affairs Committee
   1. Composition. The Christian Life and Public Affairs Committee shall be composed of three members, of whom at least one shall be other than a pastor.
   2. Duties. The Christian Life and Public Affairs Committee shall recommend ways in which the Association can work for the promotion of civic righteousness and social uplift.

H. The Student Assistance Committee
   1. Composition. The Student Assistance Committee shall be composed of six members.
   2. Duties. The Student Assistance Committee shall receive requests and make decisions concerning disbursements of available funds for student assistance.

I. The Properties Committee
   1. Composition. The Properties Committee shall be composed of three members, of whom at least one shall be a pastor.
   2. Duties. The Properties Committee is responsible for supervising the maintenance of the building and grounds of the Association as budgeted. Additional recommendations shall be referred to the Associational Board.

Section 3. Other Committees. The Association or the Associational Board may authorize other committees as they deem appropriate. For all such other committees, the body so authorizing shall establish by resolution in the minutes their composition, duties and terms.

Article XIII - ASSOCIATIONAL YEAR

The associational year shall begin October 1 and close September 30.

Article XIV - STAFF

Section 1. The Association or the Associational Board may establish such staff positions as they deem appropriate for the work of the Association, and shall establish for each position a job description, and means of supervision and termination. Employed personnel, unless otherwise determined by the Association, as may be provided in the associational budget, shall be employed by the Executive Committee.

Section 2. Appropriate personnel policies shall be established and set forth in an employee handbook.

Section 3. Director of Missions

A. Nomination and Election. A director of missions shall be recommended by the Executive Committee. This person shall be presented to and elected by the Association or the Associational Board which shall determine the salary/benefits.

B. Duties. The director of missions shall work under the guidance of the Executive Committee and serve as a member of all committees.

C. Termination. The director of missions may be dismissed by a majority vote of the Associational Board at a regular or specially called meeting, provided, however, that one week's written notice of such a pending vote must be provided in writing to the director or missions and members of the Associational Board and all member churches. The Executive Committee by two thirds vote may place the director of missions or any other staff member on administrative leave with pay pending final action.

Article XV - POLICY MANUAL

The Associational officers and staff shall assure the creation and maintenance of a Policy and Procedure Manual which shall include the various policies which are established by the Association and its various committees, boards councils or agencies including but not limited to employee policies, policies regarding use of facilities, vehicles, expense accounts, and similar matters. The Manual shall be maintained at the Associational office.

Article XVI - FINANCES

Section 1. Budget. The budget shall be prepared and adopted in the manner set forth in these Bylaws.

Section 2. Accounting Procedures. All Funds received for any and all purposes shall pass through the hands of the treasurer, and be properly recorded on the books of the Association. A system of accounting that will adequately provide for the handling of all funds shall be the responsibility of the Finance Committee.

Section 3. Expenditures and Receipts of Funds.

1. No funds shall be disbursed without the expressed authorization of the Association under the provisions of these Bylaws as provided for in the budget or separate authorization.
2. No designated funds shall be received except where the Association or an appropriate agency thereof has approved the receipt of funds for the designated cause. Separate accounting shall be maintained for all designated gifts and funds.
3. The receipt of gifts of real or personal property must be approved by the Executive Committee.

Section 4. Inspection. The general financial reports and audit reports of the Association are available for inspection by the authorized representative of any member church, or any officer of the Association.

Section 5. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Church shall run from January 1 to December 31.

The Association shall operate on a budget approved at the annual meeting to begin the following January 1 and conclude December 31.

Article XVII - AMENDMENTS TO THE BYLAWS

The Bylaws may be amended at any annual meeting of the Association by a two-thirds majority of the messengers present and voting on the second day, at a time provided by the Program Committee, provided the proposed amendment had been presented to the Executive Committee in writing at least thirty days prior to the annual meeting, and provided the proposed amendment is read to the Association on the first day of the annual meeting.

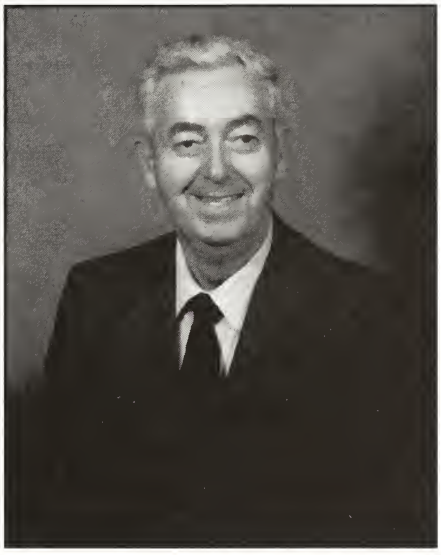
In Memoriam

JOHN CLIFTON BEAL
April 22, 1934 - September 21, 2000



John Beal, known to many of his friends as "J.C.", was born in Catawba County, North Carolina, to Sulley and Lizzie Goodson Beal in the spring of 1934. He grew up, learning the dignity and worth of hard work, lessons that would stand him in good stead as a man. John was a good man. Though that is rare enough in today's world, rarer still is to find a good man with strength of character and good humor, combined in a personality of humility and grace. Upon his death, John's brother-in-law said that he didn't think John had ever had so much as a bad dream, let alone done a bad thing. What a wonderful tribute by someone who knew him well.

John was a veteran of the United States Army, he had a pride in his homeland and exhibited his patriotism unashamedly. He was a loving and devoted husband to Mattie Lee Parker Beal who was his partner in ministry and life.

John was ordained by the East Maiden Baptist Church on February 12, 1966. He served the South Fork Baptist Association as Pastor of Howard's Creek and Crouse and, until his death, as Pastor of the Terrell Baptist Mission and a member of Mt. Anderson Baptist Church. He had a heart for missions and evangelism and had a deep and abiding love for the common people of God.

John Beal is missed by his co-workers at Vermont American Corporation and by the hundreds of people whose lives he made better. His burden for the church was the passion of his life and his place will be difficult to fill. When J.C. passed away, many of us lost a close personal friend. We will always cherish his memory and appreciate the things he achieved because of his love for the Lord Jesus.

Well done, thou good and faithful servant.

In Memoriam

DOYCE WADE TURBYFILL

November 16, 1947 - January 10, 2000

Doyce Turbyfill was born into a home filled with music. His father, Paul, and mother, Ocie, both sprang from musical families and quickly made their own family one instrumental and vocal accomplishment. Along with his brother Phil and sister Kathy, the Turbyfills were always a welcome addition to any church service, revival meeting, or singing school in the area. As he grew up, Doyce not only continued to develop his musical abilities but became a gifted athlete. Reaching his full height of six feet while still in high school he was a standout in varsity sports and held the state record for the long-jump while competing for the Lincolnton High School team. Those who remember his youth always smile when they think of his natural charm and the unspoiled nature of his personality. He truly represented the best and brightest among us.

The music almost died on July 22, 1970. Serving with Company A, 2/27th Infantry in Viet Nam, Doyce, who had only a short time before recovered from a prior wound, was severely injured by shrapnel from a Viet Cong booby trap. Years of hospitalization and rehabilitation lay ahead for young Doyce. His life, which had been so good, suddenly became a struggle. His injuries changed so much of his life forever. The physical strength and athletic grace he once had in abundance, began to grow into a unique spirituality. He became one of those rare individuals who could impart joy and encouragement to others; and who immensely enjoyed life, himself.

Doyce became a great churchman. His willing spirit and his musical ability made him a great asset to area congregations. Serving as a volunteer director, he was instrumental in beginning music programs at several churches and mission works. He became the favorite Uncle to his nieces and nephew. He was universally loved and respected as a musician, as an exemplary Christian, and as a true American hero.

Doyce will continue to be missed by all who knew and loved him. He is survived by his mother; Ocie; his sister and brother-in-law, Jeff and Kathy Drum and their daughter, Bibi; and by his brother and sister-in-law, Phil and Julie Turbyfill and their children, Jama, Maria, and Adam, who carry on his musical legacy.

of

A NON-PROFIT CORPORATION

I, the undersigned natural person of the age of eighteen or more, acting as incorporator for the purpose of creating a nonprofit corporation under the laws of the State of North Carolina, as contained in Chapter 55A of the General Statutes of North Carolina, entitled "Nonprofit Corporation Act," and the several amendments thereto, do hereby set forth:

Article I - Name

The name of the corporation is South Fork Baptist Association, and is located in Lincolnton, Lincoln County, North Carolina

Article II - Duration

The period of duration of the corporation shall be perpetual.

Article III - Character

The South Fork Baptist Association is, in spiritual character and legal identity, an association of churches through their messengers and other representatives. The Association is independent and sovereign in its own sphere, but shall never attempt to exercise any authority over the internal affairs of the churches.

Article IV - Purposes

A. The purposes of this Association shall be to provide a cooperative and orderly means through which our family of affiliated Baptist churches may:

1. provide servanthood focused missions and ministries;
2. encourage evangelism, stewardship, training and discipleship;
3. promote fellowship among ministers and churches as together we share the Gospel of Jesus Christ in word and deed; and
4. cooperate with the Baptist State Convention and the Southern Baptist Convention.

B. In furtherance of its purposes, and to the extent necessary to carry out such purposes, the corporation:

1. shall have all the powers given to and possessed by a North Carolina Corporation organized under the North Carolina Nonprofit Corporation Act.
2. may engage in any lawful activity within the purposes for which the corporation may be organized which are incidental to and in furtherance of the exempt purposes of the corporation.

C. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, officers or other private persons, except to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes as set forth in the Articles.

D. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporations shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future U.S. Internal Revenue Law) or (b) by any corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future U.S. Internal Revenue Law).

Article V - Government

The government of this association shall be Baptistic in nature, and the final authority for the operation and management of the affairs of this corporation, spiritual and temporal, shall be vested in the member churches of the corporation, which authority shall be exercised in the manner set forth in the Bylaws. Members alone, acting in the manner set forth in the Bylaws, and through the messengers and representatives, shall have the authority to adopt and amend Bylaws, approve budgets, receive members and govern and conduct the affairs of this corporation, subject to these Articles. Elected messengers shall represent the member churches at all meetings and their votes shall be binding as the votes of the represented churches. Such messengers and other persons shall be allowed, and/or elected to attend the Association meetings in accordance with the Bylaws.

The officers of the Association shall be those elected officers whose qualifications, duties and terms are set forth in the Bylaws. Fulfilling the duties of the corporate Board of Directors shall be the Executive Committee within the Associational Board as set forth in the Bylaws, and their powers shall be subject to the limits set forth therein. The Moderator shall be chairman of the Board.

At all times when the membership is not in formal session, the Association shall be managed by the Associational Board, its Executive Committee, and Associational Council as set forth in the Bylaws.

Article VI - Members

The corporation shall have two classes of members as provided in the Bylaws and all member churches shall be accepted in the manner set forth in the Bylaws. All present member churches of the Association shall automatically become members of the corporation.

Article VII - Initial Directors

The number of initial directors shall be eight, and the initial directors shall be the same as the current Executive Committee of the South Fork Baptist Association, whose names and addresses are as follows:

Earl Pennell, 1923 Hidden Valley Ave, Lincolnton, N.C. 28092
Hartwell Condrey, 1256 Sigmon Rd., Lincolnton, N.C. 28092

Article VIII - Dissolution

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the board of directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes of the corporation in such a manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for religious purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future U.S. Internal Revenue Law), as the board of directors shall determine. Priority shall be given to churches and ministries in affiliation with the Southern Baptist Convention or the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be dispersed by the Superior Court of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

Article IX - Registered Agent and Office, Principal Place of Operations

The address of the initial registered office and principal office and place of operations of the corporation in North Carolina is 2261 Laboratory Road, Lincoln County, Lincolnton, N.C. 28092, and the registered agent is Glain S. Pennell.

Article X - Incorporator

The name and address of the incorporator is Lynn R. Buzzard, 30 Kivett Hall, P.O. Box 891 Buies Creek, North Carolina 27506.

BYLAWS

PREAMBLE

We, the Baptist churches of Jesus Christ, composing the South Fork Baptist Association of North Carolina, convinced of the necessity of an association of churches in order to promote fellowship, missions education, Christian service, the preaching of the gospel and to cooperate with the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and the Southern Baptist Convention in their work, do hereby agree and subscribe to the following articles.

Article I - NAME

The name of the body shall be the South Fork Baptist Association of North Carolina, hereinafter referred to as the Association.

Article II - AUTHORITY

The Association claims to be independent and sovereign in its own sphere, but shall never attempt to exercise any authority over the internal affairs of the churches.

Article III - ARTICLES OF FAITH

The Articles of Faith of the Association, which shall be the basis of fellowship and cooperation, are those adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention in Memphis, Tennessee, May 14, 1925 and amended in Kansas City, Missouri, May 9, 1963.

Article IV - GOVERNMENT

The government of this association shall be Baptistic in nature, and the final authority for the operation and management of the affairs of this corporation, spiritual and temporal, shall be ultimately vested in the member churches of the corporation, which authority shall be exercised in the manner set forth in the bylaws. Members alone, acting in the manner and through the messengers and representatives, as set forth in the bylaws, shall have the authority to adopt and amend bylaws, approve budgets, receive members and govern and conduct the affairs of this corporation, subject to the following paragraph. Elected "Messengers" shall represent the member churches at all meetings and their votes shall be binding as the votes of the represented church. Such "Messengers" and other persons shall be allowed, and/or elected to attend the Associational meetings in accordance with the bylaws.

Article V - MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Members. Eligible Voters. This Association shall be composed of affiliated churches. Those persons authorized to act while the Association is meeting in session shall consist of the following:

A. All pastors of churches in the Association and the director of missions shall be recognized as messengers.

B. Three for the first one hundred members or fraction thereof, and one for each additional one hundred members or fraction thereof, provided that no church shall have more than ten messengers in addition to the pastor.

Section 2. Process for Receiving Church into Affiliation

The Association may receive other churches into its fellowship upon receipt of letters of dismission from other like associations. It may also receive newly constituted churches whose Articles of Faith harmonize with the generally accepted Articles of Faith among Baptists. Any newly organized church applying for membership in the Association shall be received under the watchcare of the Association for a period of time to prove, through practice and attitude, its place as a cooperating Baptist Church.

A church, upon organization, may apply for membership through the Executive Committee of the Association, upon recommendation of the Missions Development Council. The Missions Development Council, based upon new work guidelines, may recommend at the next annual meeting that the church be received by majority vote into full fellowship of the Association. During this period of watchcare such churches shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of the Association except that their members and/or messengers shall not hold office or vote.

A church under watchcare shall submit to the Association noting the church membership and attendance, financial reports of receipts, disbursements and indebtedness, and ownership of real estate.

Section 4. Discipline and Removal from Membership

Any church failing to report the annual letter to the Association, or failing to be represented at the annual meeting or failing to contribute to associational and denominational missions, for two consecutive years, shall be notified by the Executive Committee that if their failure is not remedied by the next annual meeting, recommendation shall be made to the Association acting in annual session to remove said church from the fellowship of the Association.

By a two-thirds majority vote at an annual meeting or other properly called special meeting of the Association, any church may be removed from membership in the Association. Any motion to remove such status must, however, be made by the Executive Committee which prior to any vote shall advise the church subject to such action of the proposed motion and provide an opportunity for the church to address the Committee and the Association concerning the issue.

Article VI - MEETINGS OF THE ASSOCIATION IN SESSION

Section 1. Annual Meeting. The Association shall meet annually on Monday and Tuesday after the third Sunday in October, unless otherwise set by the Associational Board. The annual meeting of the Association shall be held at such places as may be decided by the Association, upon recommendation of the Program Committee, in annual meeting. Change of places that may become necessary shall be decided by the Executive Committee. Each session of the Association shall be opened and closed with prayer.

Section 2. Special Called Meetings. The moderator, at the request of the Executive Committee, or any twenty churches requested such in writing, shall call special meetings of the Association, provided two weeks written notice is given to the member churches. The call shall set forth the purpose of the meeting and only matters noted in the call may be the subject of action at the called meeting.

Section 3. Quorum. Messengers to the annual meeting from thirty-three and one-third percent of the member-churches of the Association shall constitute a quorum.

Section 4. The parliamentary guide of the Association shall be Robert's Rules of Order (latest revised edition), except that the moderator, absent objection or with the consent of the body, may modify such rules in the interests of open discussion and process.

Section 5. Except as otherwise provided herein, action by the Association in session shall be by majority vote of those present and voting. No voting by proxy or absentee ballot shall be permitted in any election or vote in any matter.

Article VII - OFFICERS

Section 1. Officers: The officers of the Association shall be moderator, vice moderator, clerk, treasurer, parliamentarian, and historian.

Section 2. Election: The officers shall be elected by the Association in its annual meeting and shall assume their duties at the close of the annual meeting. Nominations for moderator and vice moderator shall be made from the floor. The Nomination Committee will present names for all other officers.

Section 3. Vacancy: Vacancies occurring between annual meetings shall be filled by the Executive Committee, except the office of the Moderator, in which the vice moderator shall automatically become moderator.

Section 4. Moderator. The moderator shall preside over the meetings of the Association according to the Bylaws, and appoint two replacements for those whose terms expire or for any vacancy that may exist on the Committee on Committees. He shall be chairman of the Associational Board and shall be a member of all committees. He shall be ineligible to succeed himself after the second successive term.

Section 5. Vice Moderator. The vice moderator shall preside in the absence, or, at the pleasure of the moderator, and shall be vice chairman of the Associational Board. The vice moderator is a member of the Executive Committee.

Section 6. Clerk. The clerk shall send annual report forms to the member churches at least 30 days prior to the annual meeting; keep an accurate record of the proceedings of the Association; supervise the printing and distributing of the minutes to the member churches, subject to the approval of the Executive Committee; keep on file copies of the minutes, records and other documents of the Association; and serve as secretary of the Associational Board. For these services, the clerk shall receive an honorarium to be decided by the Association and paid quarterly.

Section 7. Treasurer. The treasurer shall receive and bank all funds of the Association in the name of the Association, disburse the same upon instructions from the Association, its Associational Board or as designated in the budget; render an accurate report of receipts and disbursements at the annual meeting; give a report at each quarterly Associational Board meeting; keep books available and up to date for examination. For mutual protection, the treasurer shall be bonded in such an amount as the Executive Committee shall direct. For these services, the treasurer shall receive an honorarium to be decided by the Association and paid quarterly. The treasurer is a member of the Finance Committee.

Section 8. Parliamentarian. The parliamentarian shall advise and assist the moderator and the Association with respect to all matters, involving proper parliamentary procedure, includes annual meeting, board meetings, special meetings, etc.

Section 9. Historian. The historian shall collect and preserve historical data on the Association and its churches.

Article VIII - ASSOCIATIONAL BOARD

Section 1. Composition: The Association shall have an Associational Board composed of the officers of the Association, the director of missions, the associational Sunday School director, the associational Discipleship Training director, the associational Women on Missions director, the associational Brotherhood director, the associational Media director, the associational Missions Development director, the associational Music director, the associational Evangelism director, the associational Stewardship director, the associational Seminary Extension director, the associational Vacation Bible School director, the associational Youth coordinator, the chairmen of associational standing committees, the pastors of the member churches, and two members from each member church to be elected by the church. The two members from each church shall be duly certified in the annual letter.

Section 2. Meetings. The Associational Board shall hold four quarterly meetings and others as necessary. Special meetings of the Associational Board may be called by the Executive Committee, provided written notice is given all members at least one week prior to the meeting, and the purpose is expressly set forth. Only matters noted in the notice may be acted on at such a called meeting.

Section 3. Duties. The Associational Board shall act for the Association in the interim between annual meetings. It shall carry out the policies and will of the Association. It shall present a written report to the Association at its annual meeting.

Article IX - ASSOCIATIONAL COUNCIL

Section 1. Composition. The Association shall have an Associational Council composed of the director of missions as chairman, the Moderator, the associational Sunday School director, the associational Church Training director, the associational Women on Missions director, the associational Brotherhood director, the associational Media director, the associational Missions Development director, the associational Music director, the associational Evangelism director, the associational Stewardship director, the associational Seminary Extension director, the associational Vacation Bible School director, the associational Youth coordinator, and the chairman of the Executive Committee.

Section 2. Meetings. The Associational Council shall meet at least once per quarter.

Section 3. Duties. The Associational Council shall coordinate the activities of the associational organizations and plan and promote an associational calendar of activities.

Article X - EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Section 1. Composition. The Executive Committee shall be composed of the moderator, the vice moderator, the chairman of the Finance Committee, the Missions Development director, and six other members, of whom at least two shall be other than pastors.

Section 2. Meetings. It shall meet not less than monthly but a quorum of five shall be necessary to transact business. Special meetings may be called by the Moderator or a majority of the Committee.

Section 3. Organization. The Committee may establish such internal organization as it shall deem appropriate but shall elect a Secretary to record the minutes of its meetings. In the absence of other action, the Moderator shall serve as chair.

Section 4. Duties. The Executive Committee shall administer all matters committed to it by the Association or its Associational Board and decide on routine and emergency matters between sessions of the Associational Board. It shall initiate and recommend matters concerning business management and approve the employment of all personnel, except the director of missions. Upon recommendation of the Missions Development Council, it shall review applications for membership in the Association from newly constituted churches. It shall provide annually for an audit of the treasurer's records and report the condition of the financial records to the Association. It shall give full guidance and direction to the director of missions in formulating plans and promoting the work of the Association in general. It shall report quarterly to the Associational Board.

Section 5. Function as Corporate Board. The currently serving Executive Committee shall, meeting and acting together, constitute the Board of Directors of the South Fork Baptist Association. Such Board of Directors shall change by and in the same procedure as for the terms of the Executive Committee so that the Board of Directors shall perpetually be the same as the Executive Committee.

In their capacity as Directors, they shall have the duties and responsibilities attendant to Directors, subject however, to the limitations set forth in the Charter and Bylaws. The Directors shall not have power except as expressly authorized by the Association meeting in proper session purchase or sell or encumber any real or personal property, to install or remove officers or staff, to amend the Bylaws or Charter, or to bind the corporation to any contract. Consistent with our spiritual principles, Baptist policy, and long term practice, the Association as a whole retains the authority to govern the affairs, spiritual and temporal, of the Association in the manner established by its spiritual principles and as established by custom and these Bylaws.

Section 6. Corporate Officers. Whenever required by law or practice, the Moderator shall serve as President of the Corporation, having, however, only such powers to act for the Association as are expressly granted by these Bylaws or other proper action, and having no power absent such authorization to bind the corporation in any matter. In a similar manner and subject to the same limitations, the Vice-moderator shall serve as Vice President. The Clerk shall serve as Secretary to the Corporation and the Treasurer as Treasurer.

Article XI - ORGANIZATIONS

Section 1. Organizations: The Association shall encourage and promote such associational organizations as Sunday School, Discipleship Training, Women on Missions, Brotherhood, Media, Missions Development Council, Music, Evangelism Council, Stewardship Council, Seminary Extension, Vacation Bible School, Youth and such other organizations which are in keeping with the purpose of the Association with their full staffs and programs necessary for the promotion of the work.

Section 2. Election of Organizational Leaders and Workers. The Leaders and Workers of these organizations shall be elected by the Association in its annual meeting and shall assume their duties at the close of the annual meeting. They shall be enlisted for a two year commitment, renewed annually, with a maximum tenure of five years. Vacancies occurring between meetings shall be filled by the Executive Committee.

Section 3. Duties of Organizational Leaders.

A. Generally. Organizational directors shall serve on the Associational Council.
B. The Sunday School director shall promote and supervise the Sunday School program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions.
C. The Discipleship Training director shall promote and supervise the Discipleship Training program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions.
D. The Women on Missions director shall promote and supervise the Women on Missions program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions and in keeping with the Constitution and Bylaws of the Women on Missions of South Fork Baptist Association.
E. The Brotherhood director shall promote and supervise the Brotherhood program of the association in cooperation with the director of missions.
F. The Music director shall promote and supervise the Music program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions.
G. The Vacation Bible School director shall promote and supervise the Vacation Bible School program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions.
H. The Missions Development Council shall promote and supervise the mission program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions. The council shall be headed by a Missions Development director, who, with the director of missions, will determine the need for other council members based on the areas of missions where emphasis is to be placed.
I. The Media director shall direct and supervise the Media program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions.
J. The Evangelism Council shall promote and supervise the Evangelism program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions.
K. The Stewardship Council shall promote and supervise the Stewardship program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions. The director is a member of the Finance Committee.
L. The Seminary Extension director shall promote and supervise the Seminary Extension program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions.
M. The Youth coordinator shall promote and supervise the Youth program of the Association in cooperation with the director of missions.

Article XII - COMMITTEES

Section 1. Committee on Committees.

A. Composition. The moderator shall appoint at the annual meeting of the Association two replacements for those whose terms expire or for any vacancy that may exist on the Committee on Committees. This committee shall consist of six members of whom at least two shall be other than pastors.

B. Duties. The Committee on Committees shall nominate the members of the standing committees, present them for election by the Association, fill any committee vacancies that may occur between annual meetings, report these to the Associational Board, and appoint special committees that may be authorized by the Association or its Associational Board.

Section 2. Standing Committees. Members of all committees shall be elected to serve on a rotating basis of not more than three years. The Association shall have the following standing committees:

A. The Executive Committee—See Article X

B. The Finance Committee

1. Composition. The Finance Committee shall be composed of the treasurer, the Stewardship director, and six other members, of whom at least two shall be other than pastors.
2. Duties. The Finance Committee shall consult with the appropriate leadership of the associational organizations, committees, and officers, then plan and present to the Associational Board in its last meeting prior to the annual meeting of the Association an annual budget to be approved by the Board and present it to the Association at the annual meeting for final approval. This committee shall have the general oversight and administration of the financial affairs of the Association, and make a quarterly report to the Associational Board. The chairman is a member of the Executive Committee.

C. The Nominating Committee

1. Composition. The Nominating Committee shall be composed of six members, of whom at least two shall be other than pastors.
2. Duties. The Nominating Committee shall nominate at the annual meeting of the Association the officers of the Association (with the exception of the moderator and vice moderator), organizational officers according to Articles VI and VII of the Constitution, and associational representatives for the various institutions and agencies of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.

D. The Program Committee

1. Composition. The Program Committee shall be composed of six members, of whom at least two shall be other than pastors.
2. Duties. The Program Committee shall prepare a printed program for the annual meeting of the Association which shall be sent to all persons on the program and to all pastors at least thirty days before the annual meeting. It shall direct the enrollment of the messengers at the annual meeting. It shall recommend the place or places for the next annual meeting and the preacher and alternates for the annual sermon.

E. The Ordination Committee

1. Composition. The Ordination Committee shall be composed of six pastors.

2. Duties. The Ordination Committee shall, upon request by a member church, assist with the examination and ordination of a candidate for the gospel ministry.

F. The Resolutions Committee
   1. Composition. The Resolutions Committee shall be composed of three members, of whom at least one shall be other than pastors.
   2. Duties. The Resolutions Committee shall present to the Association any resolutions it may deem wise. All resolutions presented to the Association shall be referred to the Resolutions Committee, except that by a two-thirds vote of the messengers present on the first day of the annual meeting, the rules may be suspended and a resolution may be taken up for immediate consideration.

G. The Christian Life and Public Affairs Committee
   1. Composition. The Christian Life and Public Affairs Committee shall be composed of three members, of whom at least one shall be other than a pastor.
   2. Duties. The Christian Life and Public Affairs Committee shall recommend ways in which the Association can work for the promotion of civic righteousness and social uplift.

H. The Student Assistance Committee
   1. Composition. The Student Assistance Committee shall be composed of six members.
   2. Duties. The Student Assistance Committee shall receive requests and make decisions concerning disbursements of available funds for student assistance.

I. The Properties Committee
   1. Composition. The Properties Committee shall be composed of three members, of whom at least one shall be a pastor.
   2. Duties. The Properties Committee is responsible for supervising the maintenance of the building and grounds of the Association as budgeted. Additional recommendations shall be referred to the Associational Board.

Section 3. Other Committees. The Association or the Associational Board may authorize other committees as they deem appropriate. For all such other committees, the body so authorizing shall establish by resolution in the minutes their composition, duties and terms.

Article XIII - ASSOCIATIONAL YEAR

The associational year shall begin October 1 and close September 30.

Article XIV - STAFF

Section 1. The Association or the Associational Board may establish such staff positions as they deem appropriate for the work of the Association, and shall establish for each position a job description, and means of supervision and termination. Employed personnel, unless otherwise determined by the Association, as may be provided in the associational budget, shall be employed by the Executive Committee.

Section 2. Appropriate personnel policies shall be established and set forth in an employee handbook.

Section 3. Director of Missions

A. Nomination and Election. A director of missions shall be recommended by the Executive Committee. This person shall be presented to and elected by the Association or the Associational Board which shall determine the salary/benefits.
B. Duties. The director of missions shall work under the guidance of the Executive Committee and serve as a member of all committees.
C. Termination. The director of missions may be dismissed by a majority vote of the Associational Board at a regular or specially called meeting, provided, however, that one week's written notice of such a pending vote must be provided in writing to the director or missions and members of the Associational Board and all member churches. The Executive Committee by two thirds vote may place the director of missions or any other staff member on administrative leave with pay pending final action.

Article XV - POLICY MANUAL

The Associational officers and staff shall assure the creation and maintenance of a Policy and Procedure Manual which shall include the various policies which are established by the Association and its various committees, boards councils or agencies including but not limited to employee policies, policies regarding use of facilities, vehicles, expense accounts, and similar matters. The Manual shall be maintained at the Associational office.

Article XVI - FINANCES

Section 1. Budget. The budget shall be prepared and adopted in the manner set forth in these Bylaws.

Section 2. Accounting Procedures. All Funds received for any and all purposes shall pass through the hands of the treasurer, and be properly recorded on the books of the Association. A system of accounting that will adequately provide for the handling of all funds shall be the responsibility of the Finance Committee.

Section 3. Expenditures and Receipts of Funds.

1. No funds shall be disbursed without the expressed authorization of the Association under the provisions of these Bylaws as provided for in the budget or separate authorization.
2. No designated funds shall be received except where the Association or an appropriate agency thereof has approved the receipt of funds for the designated cause. Separate accounting shall be maintained for all designated gifts and funds.
3. The receipt of gifts of real or personal property must be approved by the Executive Committee.

Section 4. Inspection. The general financial reports and audit reports of the Association are available for inspection by the authorized representative of any member church, or any officer of the Association.

Section 5. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Church shall run from January 1 to December 31.

The Association shall operate on a budget approved at the annual meeting to begin the following January 1 and conclude December 31.

Article XVII - AMENDMENTS TO THE BYLAWS

The Bylaws may be amended at any annual meeting of the Association by a two-thirds majority of the messengers present and voting on the second day, at a time provided by the Program Committee, provided the proposed amendment had been presented to the Executive Committee in writing at least thirty days prior to the annual meeting, and provided the proposed amendment is read to the Association on the first day of the annual meeting.
